Chapter 210.

An Act Relating to the Enforcement of Liens on Watches, Clocks and Jewelry for Labor and Materials Furnished in Making and Repairing Same.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

P. L., 1917, c. 295, sec. 2; relating to sale of watches, clocks and jewelry on mechanic's lien, amended. Section two of chapter two hundred and ninety-five of the public laws of nineteen hundred and seventeen is hereby amended so that said section, as amended, shall read as follows:

'Sec. 2. Property may be sold at public or private sale; notice to be mailed owner if residence known, otherwise by posting in two places; newspaper notice eliminated. The lien holder shall retain such watch, clock or jewelry for a period of one year, at the expiration of which time, if such lien is not satisfied, he may sell such watch, clock or jewelry at public or private sale, after giving thirty days' notice in writing to the owner, specifying the amount due, describing the property to be sold and informing him that the payment of such amount within thirty days will entitle him to redeem such property. Such notice may be given by mailing the same addressed to the owner's place of residence if known, or if the owner's place of residence is unknown, a copy of such notice may be posted in two public places in the town, village or city where the property is held.'

Approved April 11, 1925.

Chapter 211.

An Act Relating to Driving Motor Vehicles While Under the Influence of Intoxicating Liquor or Drugs and the Penalty Therefor.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

P. L., 1921, c. 211, sec. 74; relating to operating motor vehicles while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs, amended. Section seventy-four of chapter two hundred and eleven of the public laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-one is hereby repealed and in place thereof the following paragraph is substituted.
