then the toll shall be altered to a sum sufficient to keep the works in repair, and if from time to time thereafter it shall be necessary to make additional improvements to carry out the purposes of this charter, said company may increase the toll to and maintain it at a sum sufficient to pay for such outlays, with six per cent interest thereon. The county commissioners of Somerset county shall audit the accounts of said company for the afore-said purposes, to determine the costs of dams, booms and other improvements and repairs.

Sec. 7. Value of present improvements to be included. The present actual value of improvements and facilities already erected upon said stream by Blaine S. Viles or his associates, servants and agents, during and since the year nineteen hundred and twenty-four, shall be included in the costs of structures and improvements designated in this act.

Sec. 8. Capital stock; par value of shares. Said company may issue its capital stock to an amount not exceeding twenty thousand dollars to be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each.

Approved March 25, 1925.

Chapter 40.

An Act to Amend Chapter One Hundred and Forty of the Private and Special Laws of Nineteen Hundred and Twenty-one, Relating to the Farmington Municipal Court.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

P. & S. L., 1921, c. 140; relating to Farmington municipal court, amended. Chapter one hundred and forty of the private and special laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-one, is hereby amended by striking out the word "six" in the fifteenth line, and inserting in lieu thereof, the word 'seven,' so that said chapter, as amended, shall read as follows:

Salary of judge increased. 'The judge of said court shall demand and receive the same fees as are allowed to trial justices for like services except that he shall demand and receive for a complaint and warrant in criminal cases one dollar; for the entry of civil action fifty cents; and for the trial of an issue, civil or criminal, one dollar for the first day and two dollars for each day after the first occupied in such cause, to be paid to him by the plaintiff in civil cases before trial, who shall recover the same as costs if he prevail in the suit. All fees, civil and criminal, shall inure to the county of Franklin and shall be paid over to the treasurer of said county by said judge on the first day of each month, except fines recovered for the violation of the inland fish and game laws of the state, which said fines shall be paid by said judge to the commissioner of inland fisheries and
