Private and Special Laws

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE

As Passed by the Eighty-Second
Legislature

1925

Sec. 2. P. & S. L., 1921, c. 75, sec. 4; relating to authority to lay mains in public way and across private lands, amended. Section four of said chapter seventy-five of the private and special laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-one is hereby amended by striking out the word "the" following the word "through" in the second line thereof and inserting in place thereof the word 'such,' and by striking out the words "of the city of Hallowell" in the second line thereof, and by inserting after the word "across" in the third line thereof the word 'such,' and by striking out the word "therein" in the third line thereof; so that said section, as amended, shall read as follows:

'Sec. 4. Limitation to lay mains, etc., in city of Hallowell only, eliminated. The said district is hereby authorized to lay in and through such streets, roads, ways and highways and across such private lands, and to maintain, repair and replace all such pipes, aqueducts, and fixtures as may be necessary and convenient for its corporate purposes; and whenever said district shall lay any pipes or aqueducts in any street, road, way or highway it shall cause the same to be done with as little obstruction as practicable to the public travel, and shall at its own expense without unnecessary delay cause the earth and pavement removed by it to be replaced in proper condition.'

Approved March 25, 1925.

Chapter 51.

An Act to Amend Section Three of Chapter One Hundred and Fourteen of the Private and Special Laws of Nineteen Hundred and Thirteen, Entitled "An Act to Increase the Salary of the Recorder of the Western Hancock Municipal Court."

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

P. & S. L., 1893, c. 613 sec. 3, as amended; relating to recorder of Western Hancock municipal court, amended. Chapter six hundred and thirteen of the private and special laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-three, as amended by chapter two hundred and seventy-eight of the private and special laws of nineteen hundred and eleven, as amended by chapter one hundred and fourteen of the private and special laws of nineteen hundred and thirteen, is hereby further amended by striking out the word "one" in the nineteenth line of section three thereof, and inserting in place thereof the word 'three,' so that said section, as amended, shall read as follows:

'Sec. 3. Salary increased. The governor, by and with the consent of the council, shall appoint a recorder of said court, who shall be an inhabitant of the county of Hancock, and shall hold his said office for the term of four years. Said recorder shall be sworn to the faithful discharge of his duties and shall keep the records of said court when requested so to do by said judge; and in case of absence of said judge from the court room, or when the office of judge shall be vacant, the said recorder shall have and exercise all the powers of the judge, and perform all the duties required of said judge by this act, and shall be empowered to sign and issue all papers and processes in criminal cases, and to do all acts relating to criminal proceedings as fully and with the same effect as the judge could do if he were acting in the premises; and the signature of the recorder, as such, shall be sufficient evidence of his right to act instead of the judge. But nothing in this act shall be construed to give the recorder authority to act other than in criminal cases. Said recorder shall receive as compensation for his services an annual salary of three hundred dollars, to be paid quarterly from the treasury of the county of Hancock together with actual expenses incurred by him in the trial of criminal cases in any town other than that in which said recorder may reside. Said recorder shall receive for every warrant issued by him one dollar which, together with all costs and fines received by him, shall within sixty days after receipt thereof be by him paid into the treasury of the county of Hancock.'

CHAP. 52

Approved March 25, 1925.

Chapter 52.

An Act to Extend the Charter Granted to the Columbia Falls Water Company, for Two Years.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Charter extended. The act of incorporation of the Columbia Falls Water Company, being chapter eighty-eight of the private and special laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-three, is hereby extended for two years from the date when this law becomes effective, with the same force and effect in all respects as if said incorporation were hereby granted.

Approved March. 25, 1925.

Chapter 53.

An Act to Amend Section Fifteen of Chapter Fifteen of the Private and Special Laws of Nineteen Hundred and Twenty-three, Relating to the Salary of the Recorder of the Kennebunk Municipal Court.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:
