CHAP. 61

at ten o'clock in the forenoon, for the transaction of civil business, at such place within said town as the judge shall determine, but the town may at any time provide a court room, in which case the court shall be held therein, and all civil processes shall be made returnable accordingly, except that actions of forcible entry and detainer may be made returnable for entry and trial on any Tuesday in the year and said court shall be held on every Tuesday of each month at ten o'clock in the forenoon for the entry and trial of cases of forcible entry and detainer, and judgment may be entered on the return day of such writs unless continued for good cause, and it may be adjourned from time to time by the judge, at his discretion; but it shall be considered in constant session for the cognizance of criminal actions; provided, that if said judge is prevented by any cause from attending at the time said court is to be held for civil business, it may be adjourned from day to day by a constable of the town, without detriment to any action then returnable or pending, until he can attend, when said actions may be entered or disposed of with the same effect as if it were the first day of the term; and it may be so adjourned without day when necessary, in which event pending actions shall be considered as continued, and actions then returnable may be returned and entered at the next term, with the same effect as if originally made returnable at said term.

Approved March 27, 1925.

Chapter 61.

An Act Relating to the Salary of the Judge of the Municipal Court of Portland.
Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

P. & S. L., 1891, c. 150, sec. 3, as amended; relating to salary of judge, amended. Section three of chapter one hundred and fifty of the private and special laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-one, as amended by section one of chapter five hundred and fifteen of the private and special laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-seven, as further amended by chapter twenty-three of the private and special laws of nineteen hundred and fifteen, is hereby further amended by striking out the word "eighteen" in the second line of said section, and inserting in place thereof the word 'twenty-two,' so that said section, as amended, shall read as follows:

'Sec. 3. Salary increased. The salary of the judge of said court shall be twenty-two hundred dollars per annum, payable quarterly, in full for all services.'

Approved March 27, 1925.
