be made payable in not exceeding twenty-five years from the date of issue. But if so made payable the city shall establish and maintain a sinking fund to provide for the payment of said bonds at maturity, and shall appropriate and pay into said sinking fund not less than two thousand five hundred dollars each year until the maturity of said bonds. Said sinking fund and all income from the same shall be kept separate and apart from all other funds of the city, and shall be so kept and invested by the treasurer of said city under the direction of the mayor and finance committee of the city council of said city of Calais.

Approved March 27, 1925.

Chapter 70.

An Act to Amend and Extend an Act, Entitled, "An Act to Incorporate the Odd Fellows' Home of Maine."

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. P. & S. L., 1917, c. 110, sec. 2; relating to purposes of corporation, amended. Section two of chapter one hundred and ten of the private and special laws of nineteen hundred and seventeen, is hereby amended by striking out the word "and" after the word "indigent" in the seventh line thereof, and inserting in place thereof a comma; also by inserting after the word "unfortunate" in the eighth line, a comma and the words, 'sick or disabled'; also by inserting after the word "maintenance" in the ninth line, the words, 'therein and thereon and elsewhere'; and also by inserting after the word "education" in the eleventh line, the words, 'therein and thereon and elsewhere,' so that said section, as amended, shall read as follows:

'Sec. 2. Purposes enlarged to include sick and disabled members, wives, widows and minor children of members at the home or elsewhere. The objects and purposes of this corporation shall be to collect, receive and hold moneys and any and all other kinds of personal property given by voluntary contributions, bequests, or otherwise, and real estate purchased, given, granted or devised, the same to be held, used, improved and expended in the purchase of lands, in the erection, establishment and equipment of buildings thereon and the care and maintenance therein and thereon and elsewhere, of indigent, unfortunate, sick or disabled members of the fraternity of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows within the state of Maine; in the care, support and maintenance therein and thereon and elsewhere of the wife or widow of any such member and in the care, support, maintenance and education therein and thereon and elsewhere of any minor child or children of a dependent or deceased member of the fraternity.'

Sec. 2. P. & S. L., 1917, c. 110, sec. 5; relating to right to hold property and investment of funds, amended. Section five of said chapter is also hereby amended by striking out the word "three" in the sixth line after the word "exceeding" and inserting in place thereof, the word 'five,' so that said section, as amended, shall read as follows:

'Sec. 5. Right to hold property increased to $500,000. The corporation hereby created and established is authorized to receive, hold and use real and personal estate for the aforesaid charitable, educational and benevolent uses and purposes, and free from taxation so long as the same shall be used for said purposes in accordance with such by-laws, rules and regulations as shall be prescribed and adopted for the same, to an amount not exceeding five hundred thousand dollars. Said trustees shall invest the moneys and funds of the corporation in savings banks, in the interest paying departments of trust companies and national banks, in sound real estate first mortgages, and in such other securities only as are authorized by law for the investment of the funds of savings banks in the state of Maine. No officer of the corporation shall hire or borrow any of the moneys or funds belonging to said corporation or be security for loans thereof to another.'

Sec. 3. Charter extended. The act of incorporation of the Odd Fellows' Home of Maine, being chapter one hundred and ten of the private and special laws of nineteen hundred and seventeen, and as extended two years by the provisions of chapter thirteen of the private and special laws of nineteen hundred and nineteen, and as further extended two years by the provisions of chapter three of the private and special laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-one, and as further extended two years by the provisions of chapter fifty of the private and special laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-three is hereby extended for two years from the date when this act becomes effective with the same force and effect in all respects as if said incorporation were hereby granted.

Approved March 27, 1925.

Chapter 71.

An Act to Authorize the State Board of Registration and Examination in Optometry to Issue a Certificate of Registration to David M. House.

Preamble. Whereas, David M. House, now of Milbridge in county of Washington and state of Maine, was engaged in the actual and continuous practice of optometry in the state of Maine for three years immediately prior to the time when the act of nineteen hundred and nine authorizing the appointment of the state board of registration and examination in optometry took effect, and
