Chapter 73.

An Act to Authorize the County Commissioners of the County of Hancock to Locate, Lay Out and Establish a County Way in Tide Waters of Eggemoggin Reach in Said County.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows :

Hancock county commissioners authorized to lay out a county way on Eggemoggin Reach. The county commissioners of the county of Hancock are hereby authorized to locate, lay out, and establish a county way, together with necessary land for approach and erections against physical changes, the sea, and elements generally, between high and low water mark, at point of lowest ebb, on Eggemoggin Reach, in the town of Sedgwick, in said county of Hancock, being bound on the west by line running parallel with and not more than three feet from the western side line of the wooden ferry approach now in use in the premises, and on the east by a line parallel with and not more than sixty feet from the eastern side line of said approach, said lines extending from high to low water at lowest ebb thereof.

Approved March 28, 1925.

Chapter 74.
