Chapter 99.

An Act Relating to the State Pier.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. P. & S. L., 1919, c. 84, sec. 1; 1919, c. 123; relating to the directors of the port of Portland and their powers and duties, amended. Section one of chapter eighty-four of the private and special laws of nineteen hundred and nineteen, as amended by chapter one hundred and twenty-three of the private and special laws of nineteen hundred and nineteen, is hereby further amended by striking out in the twenty-second line thereof the words "payable by the treasurer of state quarterly," so that said section one, as amended, shall read as follows:

'Sec. 1. Provision for payment of salaries of directors by state treasurer, eliminated. The governor, with advice and consent of the council, shall appoint four persons and the mayor of the city of Portland shall appoint one person, and the five persons so appointed, shall constitute a board to be known as the Directors of the Port of Portland, hereinafter called the directors. The terms of office of the persons first appointed by the governor shall be so arranged and designated at the time of their appointment that the term of one member shall expire in four years, one in three years, one in two years and one in one year from the first day of August, nineteen hundred and nineteen, and the term of office of the member appointed by the mayor shall expire in three years from the first day of August, nineteen hundred and nineteen. The governor shall appoint annually thereafter one member to serve for three years, as the term of any member appointed by him shall expire; and at the expiration of the term of the member appointed by the mayor, the mayor shall appoint a member to serve for three years. Any vacancy occurring among the directors shall be filled for the unexpired term by the governor or by the mayor, according as the vacancy occurs among the members originally appointed by the governor or by the mayor respectively. In all cases a member shall continue to serve until a successor is appointed and qualified. The directors may elect from their own number a president and a secretary of the board. Each director shall receive an annual salary of five hundred dollars, and shall be reimbursed for all expenses incurred in the discharge of his duties as such director.'

Sec. 2. P. & S. L., 1919, c. 84, sec. 8; 1919, c. 123; relating to power of directors to lease property, and disposition of income, amended. Section eight of chapter eighty-four of the private and special laws of nineteen hundred and nineteen as amended by chapter one hundred and twenty-three of the private and special laws of nineteen hundred and nineteen, and by chapter one hundred and eighteen of the private and special laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-three, is hereby further amended by striking out entirely said section eight and substituting in place thereof the following:

'Sec. 8. Directors given charge of disbursement of all moneys collected; provision that funds to be paid into state treasury eliminated; annual audit by state auditor. The directors shall have power to lease, for a period not exceeding twenty years under such covenants and conditions as they may prescribe, wharves, piers, bulkheads, docks, sheds, warehouses, storage facilities, transportation facilities, and terminal facilities, and industrial locations within their charge, for public purposes, and may acquire the same, or rights therein or thereto, by lease or other contract, but no lease for a term exceeding five years shall be valid until approved by the governor and council. The directors shall appoint a treasurer or other fiscal agent to hold office during their pleasure who shall give bond for the faithful discharge of his duties and who, under their direction, shall collect and deposit, subject to the restrictions of section sixty-two, chapter two of the revised statutes, the income and revenue accruing from the properties within the charge of the directors, and make disbursements therefrom, including salaries and expenses of directors and all sums payable as workmen's compensation or the premiums on a policy therefor and all other insurance premiums, for carrying out the purposes of this act and amendments thereof. He shall keep account of the income and expenditures, property and liabilities in manner approved by the state auditor, who shall examine all vouchers and audit the books of account at least once a year, making a report thereon to the governor and council, and furnishing a copy of all such reports forthwith to the directors.'

Approved April 7, 1925.
