OF THE
STATE OF MAINE

As Passed by the Eighty-third Legislature

1927

Chapter 1.

An Act Relating to and Defining the Duties of Certain Officers with Reference to Aliens Committed for Violation of Law.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. Commitment of all aliens to penal institutions to be reported to United States immigration officer. Whenever any person shall be admitted or committed to the state penitentiary, the state reformatory, the county jail or any other state, county, city or private institution which is supported wholly or in part by public funds, it shall be the duty of the warden, superintendent, sheriff or other officer in charge of such institution to inquire at once into the nationality of such person, and if it shall appear that such person is an alien, to notify immediately the United States immigration officer in charge of the district in which such penitentiary, reformatory, jail or other institution is located, of the date of and the reason for such alien's admission or commitment, the length of time for which admitted or committed, the country of which he is a citizen, and the date on which and the port at which he last entered the United States.

Sec. 2. Certified copies of records to be furnished immigration officers.

CHAP. 2

Upon the official request of the United States immigration officer in charge of the territory or district, in which is located any court committing an alien to any state, county or private institution which is supported wholly or in part by public funds it shall be the duty of the clerk of such court to furnish without charge a certified copy of the complaint, information or indictment and the judgment and sentence and any other record pertaining to the case of the convicted alien.

Approved February 25, 1927.

Chapter 2.

An Act to Establish the Narragansett Game Sanctuary in the Town of Gorham.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. Game sanctuary in Gorham established; limits. No person shall, except as herein provided, at any time, hunt, pursue, shoot at or kill any wild animal or any game or wild bird within the following described territory situated in the town of Gorham, in the county of Cumberland: Bounded on the north by the right of way of the W. N. & P. division of the Boston & Maine railroad; on the east by the Black Brook Road or Scarboro Road, so-called, in said town of Gorham; on the south by the Stroudwater River; and on the west by South Street or South Gorham Road, so-called, in said town of Gorham, containing three thousand six hundred acres, more or less.

Sec. 2. Possession of birds or animals taken, prohibited. It shall also be unlawful for any person to have in possession at any time any wild bird or wild animal taken in violation of any provision of this act.

Sec. 3. Birds or animals found destroying property may be killed. The provisions of this act shall not prohibit any person residing within the limits of the above described sanctuary from shooting at or destroying any wild bird or any wild animal when found destroying his property; nor shall it be construed to prohibit the trapping of fur-bearing animals within the above described sanctuary in accordance with the general laws of the state.

Sec. 4. Penalties. Whoever violates any provision of this act shall be subject to a penalty of not less than ten nor more than three hundred dollars and costs for each offense or imprisonment for sixty days, or both said fine and imprisonment.

Sec. 5. Territory may be enlarged. The commissioner of inland fisheries and game is empowered to enlarge the territory of this sanctuary
