Chapter 3.

An Act Relative to Automobile Plates.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

P. L., 1921, c. 211, sec. 48; relating to furnishing of number plates; display of same; lost plates, etc., amended. Paragraph two, of section forty-eight of public laws of nineteen hundred twenty-one, is hereby amended by inserting after the word "issued" in the second line thereof, the following: 'except that on and after December twenty-fifth of such calendar year, it shall be lawful to use and display on motor vehicles, the number plates issued for the next succeeding year,' so that said paragraph, as amended, shall read as follows:

Number plates for the next year may be attached December 25, previous. 'Number plates so furnished shall be valid only for the calendar year for which they are issued, except that on and after December twenty-fifth of such calendar year, it shall be lawful to use and display on motor vehicles, the number plates issued for the next succeeding year. Each number plate displayed shall be horizontal and shall be so fastened as not to swing, and its lower edges shall be at least twelve inches from the ground. Not more than one set of number plates shall be displayed upon any vehicle, except as may be otherwise permitted by this act.'

Approved March 3, 1927.
