Chapter 31.

An Act to Establish a Game Preserve in the Towns of Wells and Kennebunk, York County.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Game preserve in Wells and Kennebunk, established. No person shall, at any time, hunt, chase, catch, kill or destroy any wild bird, or wild animal, within the limits of the following described tract, or territory, situated in the towns of Wells and Kennebunk, in the county of York, to wit:

Limits of preserve. A certain tract of land consisting of two thousand five hundred acres, more or less, bounded and described as follows: On the east by the Atlantic Ocean; on the south by the Drake Island Road, so-called; on the west by the Atlantic Shore Highway, so-called; on the north by the Mousam River. Provided, however, the provisions of this act shall not be construed as prohibiting a person killing a predatory animal when found destroying his property.

Penalties. Whoever violates any provision of this act shall be subject to a penalty of not less than ten dollars, nor more than three hundred dollars and costs for each offense, or imprisonment for sixty days, or both said fine and imprisonment. It shall also be unlawful, under the same penalty, for any person to have in possession, at any time, any wild bird or any wild animal, or part thereof, taken within the above named closed territory.

Limits may be enlarged. The commissioner of inland fisheries and game is hereby empowered to enlarge the territory in this game preserve, or sanctuary, upon petition of owners of the additional land to be included.

Approved March 23, 1927.
