Chapter 50.

An Act to Regulate Fishing in Bowler Pond in Palermo in the County of Waldo.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. Fishing in Bowler pond regulated. It shall be unlawful for any person to fish for, take, catch or kill any kind of fish at any time in Bowler pond, so-called, which pond is situated in the town of Palermo, in the county of Waldo, except in the ordinary manner of casting with unbaited, artificial flies, or fly fishing, so-called.

Sec. 2. Daily limit fixed. It shall be unlawful for any person to take, catch and kill more than six fish in all in said Bowler pond in any one day. It shall also be unlawful for any person to have in possession in any one day more than six fish in all taken in said pond.

Sec. 3. Possession of fish in violation of provisions prohibited. It shall be unlawful for any person to have in possession at any time any kind of fish taken in said Bowler pond except in the ordinary manner of casting with unbaited, artificial flies, or fly fishing, so-called.

Sec. 4. Penalties. Whoever violates any provision of this act shall pay a fine of not less than ten dollars nor more than thirty dollars, and costs of prosecution, for each offense; and in addition thereto one dollar for each fish taken, caught, killed or had in possession in violation of any provision of this act.

Sec. 5. Jurisdiction of offenses granted to trial justices, police and municipal courts. In all prosecutions arising under this act, trial justices, police and municipal courts within their counties shall have, upon complaint, original and concurrent jurisdiction with the supreme judicial court, and superior courts.

Approved April 1, 1927.
