Chapter 58.

An Act Relating to Facilities to be Furnished Public Utilities Commission by Public Utilities.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 56, sec. 51; relating to facilities to be furnished public utilities commission, amended. Section fifty-one of chapter fifty-six of the revised statutes is hereby amended by striking out all of the section after the word "duties" in the third line thereof, so that said section, as amended, shall read as follows:

'Sec. 51. Free transportation eliminated. Every public utility within the state shall furnish all reasonable facilities to the public utilities commission for the prompt and faithful discharge of its duties.'

Approved April 1, 1927.

Chapter 59.

An Act to Regulate Bass Fishing in Virginia Lake, in the County of Oxford.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. Bass fishing in Virginia lake, regulated. It shall be unlawful for any person to fish for, take, catch or kill, any black bass at any time in Virginia Lake, in the town of Stoneham, county of Oxford, except between the twentieth day of June and the thirtieth day of November following of each year, both days inclusive, during which open season it shall be lawful to fish in said lake for black bass in accordance with the general law of the state applying to black bass fishing.

Sec. 2. Penalties. Whoever violates any provision of this act shall be subject to a penalty of not less than ten dollars nor more than thirty dollars and costs for each offense, and one dollar additional for each fish taken, caught, killed or had in possession in violation of any provision of this act.

Sec. 3. Jurisdiction of offenses granted to trial justices, police and municipal courts. Trial justices, police and municipal courts, within their respective counties, shall have, upon complaint, original and concurrent jurisdiction with the supreme judicial court and superior courts in all prosecutions arising under this act.

Approved April 1, 1927.
