An Act to Prohibit the Taking of More Than Eight Pounds of Trout, Landlocked Salmon and Togue in All in One Day in Moose River, in Somerset County, Down to the Head of Brassua Lake, or in Wood Pond, Little Wood Pond, Little Big Wood Pond, Long Pond, Attean Lake and Holeb Pond, All in the County of Somerset.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. Daily limit of fish in certain waters in Somerset county, established. It shall be unlawful for any person to take or catch and kill or have in possession in any one day more than eight pounds of land-locked salmon, trout and togue in all in Moose river in Somerset county, down to the head of Brassua lake, or in Wood pond in Jackman, Dennistown and in Attean Township, so-called, or in Little Wood pond, or Mud pond, so-called, in Attean Township, or in Little Big Wood pond in Dennistown, or in Long pond in Long Pond Plantation and in Jackman, or in Attean lake in Attean Township; or in Holeb pond partly in said Attean Township and partly in Holeb Township, all in the county of Somerset.

Sec. 2. Penalties. Whoever violates any provision of this act shall be subject to a penalty of not less than ten dollars, nor more than thirty dollars and costs of prosecution for each offense, and one dollar additional for each pound of fish taken, caught, killed or had in possession in violation of any provision of this act.

Sec. 3. Jurisdiction of offenses granted to trial justices, police and municipal courts. In all prosecutions arising under this act, trial justices, police and municipal courts within their counties shall have, upon complaint, original and concurrent jurisdiction with the supreme judicial court and superior courts.

Approved April 1, 1927.

Chapter 68.

An Act Relating to Fishing in Watchic Pond, in the Town of Standish, in the County of Cumberland.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. Ice fishing in Watchic pond, prohibited; exceptions. It shall be unlawful for any person to fish for, take, catch or kill any kind of fish at any time on or through the ice in Watchic pond, in the town of Standish, in the county of Cumberland, except pickerel and white perch may be taken on or through the ice in said pond in accordance with the general law of the state. It shall also be unlawful for any person to have in possession at any time any kind of fish except pickerel and white perch taken on or through the ice in said Watchic pond.

Sec. 2. Trout and land-locked salmon fishing in Watchic pond, regulated; daily limit. It shall be unlawful for any person to fish for, take, catch or kill any trout or land-locked salmon at any time in said Watchic pond, except in the ordinary way of casting with artificial flies, or fly fishing, so called, and then only from the time the ice is out of said pond in the spring until the thirtieth day of September next following of each year, both days inclusive, and only from sunrise until sunset in each day; provided, further, that it shall be unlawful for any person to take or catch and kill more than three trout and land-locked salmon in all in any one day in said pond; and provided, further, that it shall be unlawful for any person at any time to take or catch and kill, or have in possession at any time any trout less than ten inches in length or any land-locked salmon less than fourteen inches in length, nor more than three trout and land-locked salmon in all in any one day, taken in said pond.

Sec. 3. Penalties. Whoever violates any provision of this act shall be subject to a penalty of not less than ten dollars nor more than thirty dollars and costs for each offense and a further penalty of one dollar for each fish taken, caught, killed or had in possession in violation of any provision of this act.

Sec. 4. Jurisdiction of offenses granted to trial justices, police and municipal courts. In all prosecutions arising under this act trial justices, police and municipal courts within their counties shall have, upon complaint, original and concurrent jurisdiction with the supreme judicial court and superior courts.

Approved April 1, 1927.

Chapter 69.

An Act to Regulate Fishing in the Tributaries to Royal's River and Bennett Brook, and the Tributaries to Pleasant River in Cumberland County.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. Closed time for fishing in certain waters in the town of Gray, established. For a period of two years from the time this act becomes effective, it shall be unlawful for any person to fish for, take, catch or kill, any kind of fish at any time in any tributary to Royal's river, so-called, in the town of Gray, in the county of Cumberland, or in Bennett brook, so-called, which is situated wholly or partly in said town of Gray, or in any tributary to Pleasant river in said town of Gray.

Sec. 2. Possession of fish prohibited. It shall also be unlawful for any person to have in possession at any time any kind of fish taken in violation of any provision of this act.
