PUBLIC LAWS
OF THE
STATE OF MAINE

As Passed by the Eighty-third Legislature

1927

of the public laws of nineteen hundred twenty-five is hereby amended by striking out in the fourth line thereof the words "said waters," and inserting in place thereof the words 'Lake Cobbosseecontee in the county of Kennebec,' so that said section, as amended, shall read as follows:

'Sec. 3. Daily limit under general law in so far as relates to Lake Cobbosseecontee, not affected. This act shall not be construed as repealing that portion of the existing general law establishing a daily limit of fifteen pounds of white perch or not exceeding twenty-five white perch which may be taken in any one day in Lake Cobbosseecontee in the county of Kennebec.'

Approved April 6, 1927.

Chapter 84.

Chapter 86.

An Act to Regulate the Taking of Pickerel in Union River in the County of Hancock.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. Closed time for pickerel fishing in Union river and tributaries, established; ice fishing permitted. It shall be unlawful for any person to fish for, take, catch, or kill any pickerel at any time in Union river, including the portions of said river now known as Leonard lake and Graham lake, or in any stream or brook tributary to said river, in the county of Hancock, from the thirtieth day of September of each year until the ice is out of said river or tributary fished in the following spring, except it shall be lawful to take pickerel through the ice in said river, including the portion thereof known as Graham lake and Leonard lake, in accordance with the provisions of the general law of the state applying to ice fishing for salmon and trout, as found in section eighteen of chapter two hundred nineteen of the public laws of nineteen hundred seventeen, as amended. Provided, however, that it shall be unlawful for any person to take, catch, kill or have in possession in any one day more than fifteen pounds of pickerel, unless the last fish taken increases the combined weight thereof to more than fifteen pounds, taken in said river or Graham lake, so called.

Sec. 2. Possession prohibited. It shall be unlawful for any person to have in possession at any time, any pickerel taken in violation of any provision of this act.

Sec. 3. Penalties. Whoever violates any provision of this act shall be subject to a penalty of not less than ten dollars nor more than thirty dollars and costs for each offense, and a further penalty of one dollar for each pickerel taken, caught, killed or had in possession in violation of any provision of this act.

Sec. 4. Jurisdiction of offenses granted to trial justices, police and municipal courts. In all prosecutions arising under this act, trial justices, police and municipal courts, within their counties, shall have original and concurrent jurisdiction with the supreme judicial court and superior courts.

Approved April 6, 1927.
