PUBLIC LAWS
OF THE
STATE OF MAINE

As Passed by the Eighty-third Legislature

1927

CHAP. 155

act shall be construed as limiting the power of a parent or guardian or person standing in loco parentis to determine what treatment or correction shall be provided for a child or the agency or agencies to be employed for such purpose.

Approved April 12, 1927.

Chapter 155.

An Act Relating to the Salary of the County Attorney for Oxford County.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 117, sec. 37; as amended; relating to salaries of county attorneys, further amended. Section thirty-seven of chapter one hundred and seventeen of the revised statutes as amended by chapter one hundred and ninety-four of the public laws of nineteen hundred and seventeen, as amended by chapter two hundred and fourteen of the public laws of nineteen hundred and nineteen, as amended by chapter two hundred and nineteen of the public laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-one, as amended by chapter one hundred and ninety-two of the public laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-three, as amended by chapter one hundred and fifty of the public laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-five, is hereby further amended by striking out the words "nine hundred dollars" in the twelfth line thereof, and inserting in place thereof the words 'twelve hundred dollars,' so that said section, so far as it relates to the salary of the county attorney for Oxford county, shall read as follows:

Oxford county increased. 'Oxford, twelve hundred dollars.'

Approved April 13, 1927.

Chapter 156.

An Act to Increase the Salary of the Secretary of State.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 117, sec. 15; P. L., 1921, c. 212; relating to salary of secretary of state, amended. Section fifteen, of chapter one hundred and seventeen of the revised statutes, as amended by chapter two hundred and twelve of the public laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-one, is hereby further amended by striking out the words "thirty-five hundred," in the second line thereof, and by inserting in lieu thereof the words 'four thousand'; and by striking out the words "beginning January first, nineteen hundred and twenty-one," in the third line thereof, so that said section, as amended, shall read as follows:

'Sec. 15. Salary increased to $4000. The secretary of state shall receive an annual salary of four thousand dollars. He and his deputy shall also receive such actual travelling expenses incident to the administration of his department as shall be necessary.

The number and compensation of clerks employed by the secretary of state shall be determined by the governor and council.'

Approved April 14, 1927.

Chapter 157.

An Act to Provide for Compensation of Justices of the Supreme Judicial Court.
Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. R. S., c. 117, sec. 5; 1917, c. 170; 1921, c. 87; relating to salaries of justices of supreme judicial court, amended. Section five of chapter one hundred seventeen of the revised statutes, as amended by chapter one hundred seventy of the public laws of nineteen hundred and seventeen, and amended by chapter eighty-seven of the public laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-one, is hereby further amended by striking out the words "six thousand" in the second line and inserting in place thereof the words 'eight thousand,' so that said section five, as amended, shall read as follows:

'Sec. 5. Salary increased to $8000. The justices of the supreme judicial court shall each receive an annual salary of eight thousand dollars. Each justice shall be reimbursed by the state for his expenses actually and reasonably incurred in attending meetings appointed by the chief justice under the provisions of section forty-three, of chapter eighty-two, and the sessions of the law court, upon presentation to the state auditor of the detailed statement of such expenses. When any justice of said court holds nisi prius terms of said court in any county other than the county in which he resides, or when any hearing of a cause in law or in equity is had in vacation before a justice of said court other than one residing in the county where said hearing is held, such justice shall be reimbursed by the state for his expenses actually and reasonably incurred in holding such terms, or in attending said hearing, upon presentation to the state auditor of a detailed statement of such expenses. The counties wherein such justices reside, have their offices, or are holding court shall also receive from the state the expenses necessarily incurred by such justices for postage, stationery, express and telephone tolls.'

Sec. 2. Retroactive to January 1, 1927. The provisions of this act shall
