Chapter 176.

An Act Relating to State School Fund and Especially Relating to High School Tuition by Non-resident Students.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

P. L., 1921, c. 173, sec. 5; relating to reimbursement to towns for tuition for pupils attending secondary schools, amended. Section five of chapter one hundred seventy-three of the public laws of nineteen hundred twenty-one, is amended by striking out after the word "town" in line twelve the words "not to exceed forty dollars for any one pupil or six hundred dollars for any one town" and including at the close of the section the following: 'and reimbursement to any town for any one year shall not exceed seven hundred dollars. Provided, further, that any town not maintaining a high school may pay tuition for any student, who with parents or guardian, resides in said town and who attends an approved school of secondary grade in a town adjacent to the state of Maine in another state when distance and transportation facilities make attendance in a Maine high school or academy inexpedient.' So that the section as amended shall read as follows:

'Sec. 5. Apportionment to towns to equal two-thirds amount paid; pupils may attend schools in adjacent towns in another state; conditions. When any town shall have been required to pay and has paid tuition for pupils attending secondary schools, as provided by section eighty-five of chapter sixteen of the revised statutes, the superintendent of schools of such town shall make a return under oath to the state superintendent of public schools before the first day of September, nineteen hundred and twenty-two, and annually thereafter, for the preceding school year, stating the name of each pupil for whom tuition has been paid, the amount paid by the town for each and the name and location of the school which each has attended. Upon the approval of said return the state superintendent of public schools shall apportion to such town a sum equal to
