As Passed by the Eighty-third Legislature

1927

CHAP. 202

shall be allowed in any one flock in the waters of Merrymeeting Bay and its tributaries. Only one flock at the same time may be placed in the water by one boat, or blind. No flock of decoys shall be placed nearer than fifty yards to a flock already set or being set.

Sec. 3. Use of boats for hunting purposes, limited; decoys not allowed between sunset and an hour before sunrise. No boat shall be allowed in the waters of Merrymeeting Bay and its tributaries for hunting purposes earlier than one and one-half hours before sunrise, nor shall any duck decoys be allowed to remain in said waters between the hours of sunset and one hour before sunrise.

Sec. 4. Penalties; general closed time law not affected. Whoever violates any of the preceding sections of this act shall pay a fine of not less than ten dollars nor more than forty dollars for each offense and nothing in this act shall be construed as changing the closed season on wild birds from sunset to half an hour before sunrise the following morning.

Approved April 15, 1927.

Chapter 202.

An Act to Increase the Salary of the Treasurer of York County.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 117, sec. 44; as amended; relating to salaries of county treasurers, further amended. Section forty-four of chapter one hundred and seventeen of the revised statutes, as amended, is hereby further amended by striking out after the word "York" in the twentieth line thereof the words "eleven hundred dollars" and inserting in place thereof the words 'twelve hundred fifty dollars,' so that said twentieth line of said section, as amended, shall read as follows:

'York county increased. 'York, twelve hundred fifty dollars.'

Approved April 15, 1927.

Chapter 203.

An Act to Increase the Salaries of the County Commissioners of York County.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 117, sec. 42; as amended, relating to salaries of county commissioners, further amended. Section forty-two of chapter one hundred and seventeen of the revised statutes, as amended, is hereby further
