Chapter 228.

An Act Relating to Marketmen's Licenses.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

P. L., 1917, c. 219, sec. 70; relating to marketmen's licenses to sell deer meat, amended. Section seventy of chapter two hundred and nineteen of the public laws of nineteen hundred and seventeen, is hereby amended by striking out all of said section and by substituting therefor the following section:

'Sec. 70. Marketmen and provision dealers may be licensed to sell deer and moose meat; fee; record to be kept; to make return to commissioner of inland fisheries and game; penalties. Any marketman or provision dealer having an established place of business in this state, may purchase and have in possession at his said place of business not more than two deer, nor more than one bull moose, lawfully killed or destroyed, or any part thereof, in any one year, and may sell the same at retail to his local customers, and may sell the heads of such deer or bull moose to any licensed taxidermist; provided, however, that said marketman or provision dealer shall annually procure a license of the commissioner of inland fisheries and game to buy and sell deer or bull moose as aforesaid; and provided, further, that said marketman shall record in a book kept for that purpose, and open to the inspection of inland fish and game wardens, deputy inland fish and game wardens and the commissioner of inland fisheries and game, the name and residence of each person of whom he purchases any deer or bull moose, and the date of such purchase; and if any marketman or provision dealer shall violate any provision of this section he shall pay a fine of five hundred dollars and costs for each offense, and be prohibited for five years thereafter from the benefits of this section. All marketmen or provision dealers licensed as aforesaid shall pay to the commissioner of inland fisheries and game a fee of five dollars annually; each marketman or provision dealer licensed as aforesaid shall, on the thirty-first day of each December, make, sign and send to the commissioner, under oath, a statement setting forth in detail the name and residence of each person of whom a deer, or a bull moose, or part thereof, has been purchased and the date of each purchase, during the time covered by his license; and whoever fails to make such report shall pay a fine of one hundred dollars and costs for each offense.'

Approved April 16, 1927.

Chapter 229.

An Act Relating to the Trial and Law Terms of the Supreme Judicial Court and to Amend Section Ninety-eight of Chapter Eighty-two of the Revised Statutes Relating to the Exchange of Justices of the Superior Court.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. R. S., c. 82, sec. 51; relating to trial terms of the supreme judicial court, amended. Section fifty-one of chapter eighty-two of the revised statutes is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

'Sec. 51. Aroostook, Hancock, Kennebec, Lincoln, Piscataquis, Sagadahoc, Somerset, Waldo, Washington and York terms, changed. For the trial of civil actions and persons accused of offenses and for the transaction of all business, except cases named in section forty-six, the trial terms of the supreme judicial court shall be held annually by one justice at the following places and times, and the justices shall so hold said terms under the direction of the chief justice, that their services shall be divided to each county as equally as may be.

Androscoggin: At Auburn on the third Tuesday of January, third Tuesday of April, and the third Tuesday of September.

Aroostook: At Houlton on the third Tuesday of April and the second Tuesday of November for civil and criminal business, and at Caribou on the first Tuesday of February and September for civil business only.

Cumberland: At Portland on the second Tuesday of January, April, and October for civil business.

Franklin: At Farmington, on the first Tuesday of February, third Tuesday of May, and the second Tuesday of September; the May term shall be held without a grand jury and with but one traverse jury, unless a justice of said court shall otherwise specially order, in which case the clerk shall send venires for the requisite number of traverse jurors, and shall summon the grand jury of the preceding term, as the terms of said order may require. All recognizances from municipal courts and trial justices in which parties are held to await the action of the grand jury, made returnable to said May term, shall, when no grand jury is in attendance,
