Chapter 34

An Act to Enable the Home for Aged Men to Hold Property Up to One Million Dollars.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

P. & S. L., 1881, c. 133, sec. 2; 1883, c. 267; 1921, c. 48; 1923, c. 25; relating to authority of Home for Aged Men to hold property, amended. Chapter one hundred and thirty-three of the private and special laws of eighteen hundred and eighty-one, entitled an act to incorporate the Mercantile Home for Aged Men Association, as amended by chapter two hundred and sixty-seven of the private and special laws of eighteen hundred and eighty-three, and further amended by chapter forty-eight of the private and special laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-one, and further amended by chapter twenty-five of the private and special laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-three, is hereby further amended by striking out the words "five hundred thousand dollars" in the second and third lines of section two thereof and inserting in place thereof the words 'one million dollars,' so that said section two, as amended, shall read as follows:

'Sec. 2. Amount of property which may be held increased to $1,000,000. Said corporation shall elect such officers as it deems necessary and may take, hold and convey real and personal property not exceeding one million dollars, appoint a board of management for any home provided for the purposes of charity or of this act, make regulations for the admission of persons to such home, and their discharge therefrom, adopt a constitution and by-laws not inconsistent with the laws of this state, and regulate the holding of stock in said corporation and the rights of the stockholders in the property thereof, and do all other acts necessary to the establishment and management of such home, not forbidden by the laws of this state.'

Approved March 14, 1927.
