Private and Special Laws

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE

As Passed by the Eighty-Third Legislature

amended. Section one of the private and special laws of chapter two hundred eight of the year eighteen hundred eighty is hereby amended by adding at the end of such section the following: 'except that fish traps constructed of brush and twine supported by stakes, driven into the bed of said pond, may also be employed for the catching of smelts,' so that said section, as amended, shall read as follows:

'Sec. 1. Use of fish traps permitted. All persons are forbidden to take any smelts in the Salt pond in the towns of Bluehill, Sedgwick and Brooklin, Hancock county, in any other manner than by hook and line, except that fish traps constructed of brush and twine, supported by stakes, driven into the bed of said pond, may also be employed for the catching of smelts.'

Approved April 7, 1927.

Chapter 97

An Act to Repeal Chapter One Hundred and Eighty-one, of the Private and Special Laws of Nineteen Hundred and Seventeen, Establishing a Close Time on Lobsters.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

P. & S. L., 1917, c. 181; relating to taking lobsters in certain waters in Hancock county, repealed. Chapter one hundred and eighty-one of the private and special laws of nineteen hundred and seventeen, establishing a close time on lobsters in certain waters of Hancock county between a line on the east, extending due north and south through Egg Rock Light in Frenchman's Bay and a line on the west and south, beginning at the extreme southwestern point of Mt. Desert Island known as Lopus' Point; thence extending in a direct line to the extreme north end of Gott's Island; thence following the easterly shore of Gott's Island to the extreme southeast point of said island; thence in a direct line to the extreme north end of Great Duck Island; thence following the western shore of Great Duck Island to the lighthouse; thence in a direct southerly course three nautical miles; thence due east to the line extending south from Egg Rock Light, is hereby repealed.

Approved April 7, 1927.
