OF THE

STATE OF MAINE

As Passed by the Eighty-Third Legislature

nineteen, and extended by chapter twelve of the private and special laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-one, and extended by chapter twenty of the private and special laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-three, and extended by chapter fifteen of the private and special laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-five, are hereby continued in force and extended for two years from the time this act goes into effect, and all the rights, powers, privileges and franchises which were granted, or have been acquired by virtue of said act, may, and shall be exercised in the same manner and for the same purpose as provided in said chapter forty-one, except as hereinafter provided.

Sec. 2. Existing statutes not affected; subject to provisions of R. S., c. 55. Nothing herein contained is intended to repeal, or shall be construed as repealing, the whole or any part of any existing statute, and all the rights and duties herein mentioned shall be exercised and performed in accordance with all the applicable provisions of chapter fifty-five of the revised statutes, and all acts amendatory thereof or additional thereto.

Approved April 16, 1927.

Chapter 130.

An Act Relating to Increasing the Salary of the Recorder of the Western Hancock Municipal Court.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

P. & S. L., 1893, c. 613, sec. 3; as amended; relating to appointment of recorder, his powers, duties and compensation, further amended. Chapter six hundred and thirteen of the private and special laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-three, as amended by chapter two hundred and seventy-eight of the private and special laws of nineteen hundred and eleven, as amended by chapter one hundred and fourteen of the private and special laws of nineteen hundred and thirteen, as amended by chapter fifty-one of the private and special laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-five, is hereby further amended by striking out the word "three" in the sixteenth line of section three thereof, and inserting in place thereof the word "five," so that said section, as amended, shall read as follows:

Sec. 3. Salary increased. The governor, by and with the consent of the council, shall appoint a recorder of said court, who shall be an inhabitant of the county of Hancock, and shall hold his said office for the term of four years. Said recorder shall be sworn to the faithful discharge of his duties and shall keep the records of said court when requested so to do by said judge; and in case of absence of said judge from the court room, or when the office of judge shall be vacant, the said recorder shall have and exercise all the powers of the judge, and perform all the duties required of said judge by this act, and shall be empowered to sign and issue all papers and processes in criminal cases, and to do all acts relating to criminal proceedings as fully and with the same effect as the judge could do if he were acting in the premises; and the signature of the recorder, as such, shall be sufficient evidence of his right to act instead of the judge. But nothing in this act shall be construed to give the recorder authority to act other than in criminal cases. Said recorder shall receive as compensation for his services an annual salary of five hundred dollars, to be paid quarterly from the treasury of the county of Hancock together with actual expenses incurred by him in the trial of criminal cases in any town other than that in which said recorder may reside. Said recorder shall receive for every warrant issued by him one dollar, which together with all costs and fines received by him, shall within sixty days after receipt thereof be by him paid into the treasury of the county of Hancock.

Approved April 16, 1927.

Chapter 131.

An Act to Incorporate the Railroad Workers Credit Union of Maine.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. Corporators; corporate name; purposes; authorized to hold property. Harold J. Foster, Michael F. Dooley, Frank E. Morton, George W. Peterson, William H. Fagan, Malcolm H. Allen, all of Portland in the state of Maine, and William E. Cressey of Biddeford in said state, and their associates and successors, and such other persons as may be elected to membership under section three of this act, are hereby created a body corporate under the name of Railroad Workers Credit Union of Maine, for the purpose of receiving money or deposits from its members, either as a payment on shares or as deposits; to lend to its members or invest such deposits and the amounts paid for shares of its capital stock; and by that name may sue and be sued; may have a common seal, adopt by-laws and regulations for the management of its affairs not repugnant to this charter, and the laws of this state; and may purchase, hold, mortgage, pledge, exchange, and convey all such property, real and personal, as may be deemed necessary for the use or accommodation of the business of the corporation and generally do and perform any and all legal acts incident to similar corporations.

Sec. 2. Location; agencies. The corporation shall be located in, and
