for feeble-minded and in case they find that the patient is mentally incapable of giving his consent, the consent of the guardian must be secured. If in the judgment of the consulting physicians the operation will prevent the further propagation of mental deficiency, or if in the judgment of the medical consultants the physical or mental condition of any such person will be substantially benefited thereby, then the consultants shall select a competent surgeon to perform the operation of fallocotomy or vasectomy, as the case may be, upon such person.'

Approved February 22, 1929.

Chapter 7.

An Act to Continue the Game Sanctuary in Knox County Known as the Knox County Game Preserve.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. Knox county game preserve continued; four years' closed time provided for. For a period of four years from July eleven, nineteen hundred and twenty-nine, no person shall, at any time, hunt, pursue, shoot at or kill any wild animal or any game or wild bird within the following described territory, situated in the city of Rockland and towns of Thomaston, Warren and Rockport, in the county of Knox, known as the Burnt Land or Bog, which territory is bounded and described as follows: Beginning at Willis Corner, so-called, on the Beechwood's road; thence westerly by the Warren Highland road to the Oyster river bridge; thence north following the course of the Oyster river to the Warren, West Rockport road; thence by said road and the Beechwood's road, easterly and southerly to Willis Corner at the point of beginning, containing approximately six thousand five hundred acres. It shall also be unlawful for any person to have in possession at any time any wild animal or any game or wild bird or part thereof taken in violation of any provision of this act.

Sec. 2. Penalties. Whoever violates any provision of this act shall be subject to a penalty of not less than ten nor more than three hundred dollars and costs for each offense, or imprisonment for sixty days, or both said fine and imprisonment.

Approved February 22, 1929.

Chapter 8.

An Act to Establish the Winthrop and Wayne Game Sanctuary in the Towns of Winthrop and Wayne.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. Game sanctuary established in towns of Winthrop and Wayne;

CHAP. 9

limits defined. No person shall, except as herein provided, at any time, hunt, pursue, shoot at or kill any wild animal or any game or wild bird within the following-described territory situated in the towns of Winthrop and Wayne, in the county of Kennebec: Beginning at the state aid road, numbered one hundred thirty-three at its intersection with a cross road running southerly, which connects with the Fellows Hill road, so-called; thence running westerly, one and six-tenths mile to the John S. Raymond road, so-called; thence running southerly, one and two-tenths mile to the road leading from Monmouth over Fellows Hill to Winthrop village; thence running easterly, six-tenths of a mile to the bridge between Berry and Dexter ponds; thence running northeasterly, seven-tenths of a mile to the cross road first herein mentioned; thence running northerly by said cross road, five-tenths of a mile to the point of beginning. The territory herein above described shall be known, and in any proceedings under this act may be designated as the Winthrop and Wayne Game Sanctuary.

Sec. 2. Unlawful possession. It shall also be unlawful for any person to have in possession at any time any wild bird or wild animal taken in violation of any provision of this act.

Sec. 3. Exceptions for those residing within limits; trapping of fur-bearing animals permitted. The provisions of this act shall not prohibit any person residing within the limits of the above described sanctuary from shooting at or destroying any wild bird or any wild animal when found destroying his property, nor shall it be construed to prohibit the trapping of fur-bearing animals within the above described sanctuary in accordance with the general laws of the state.

Sec. 4. Penalties. Whoever violates any provision of this act shall be subject to a penalty of not less than ten nor more than three hundred dollars and costs for each offense or imprisonment for sixty days, or both said fine and imprisonment.

Sec. 5. Territory may be enlarged. The commissioner of inland fisheries and game is empowered to enlarge the territory of this sanctuary upon the written consent of the owners of the additional land to be included.

Approved February 22, 1929.
