CHAP. 35

each year, make such report to said commissioner as may be called for by him. Whoever traps any fur-bearing animal, or animals, anywhere in the state, in violation of any provision of this section, or whoever fails to file the annual report required by this section, shall pay a fine of not less than ten dollars nor more than one hundred dollars and costs for each offense. Whoever has in possession at any time any fur-bearing animal, or part or parts thereof, taken in violation of any provision of this section shall be subject to the same penalty. Provided, however, that whoever traps any beaver anywhere in the state, in violation of any provision of this section, shall pay a fine of not less than one hundred dollars and costs for each offense. Whoever has in possession at any time any beaver or part or parts thereof, taken in violation of any provision of this section, shall be subject to the same penalty.'

Approved March 11, 1929.

Chapter 35.

An Act Relating to Rules of Construction; Signatures.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 1, sec. 6; relating to rules of construction, amended. Paragraph XX of section six of chapter one of the revised statutes is hereby amended by striking out all of the second sentence of said paragraph and substituting in place thereof the following: 'When the signature of a person is required, he must write it or make his mark, but the signatures of any officer or officers of a corporation upon a certificate of shares in such corporation, when any such certificate is signed by a transfer agent or transfer clerk and by a registrar, and upon the interest coupons annexed to a corporate bond or other corporate obligation, may be facsimiles, engraved or printed,' so that said paragraph, as amended, shall read as follows:

'XX. Signature of officers on certificate may be facsimiles, engraved or printed. The words "in writing" and "written" include printing and other modes of making legible words. When the signature of a person is required, he must write it or make his mark, but the signatures of any officer or officers of a corporation upon a certificate of shares in such corporation, when any such certificate is signed by a transfer agent or transfer clerk and by a registrar, and upon the interest coupons annexed to a corporate bond or other corporate obligation, may be facsimiles, engraved or printed.'

Approved March 11, 1929.
