An Act Providing for the Attesting of Records of City and Town Clerks by Volume.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Attestation by volume of city records provided for. The records of the city and town clerks in the several cities and towns of thirty-five thousand inhabitants and over may be attested by volume, and it shall be a sufficient attestation of each document recorded therein when each volume thereof bears the attest with the written signature of the clerk or other person authorized by law to attest such records.

Approved March 15, 1929.

Chapter 71.

An Act to Establish a Game Preserve in the Town of Windham, Cumberland County.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. Game preserve established in town of Windham. No person shall at any time hunt, chase, catch, kill or destroy any wild bird or wild animal (other than fish) in or upon the waters of Little Duck pond, so-called, in the town of Windham, in the county of Cumberland, or within the limits of the following described tract or territory situated on the western shore of said pond, to wit:

A certain tract of land consisting of thirty-five (35) acres, more or less, bounded and described as follows:

Beginning at a pile of stones and an iron pipe driven into the ground near the shore of said Little Duck pond at the southerly corner of Josephine Merrill's land; thence running southerly by the shore of said pond sixty (60) rods more or less to a spotted maple tree and an iron pipe driven in the ground at the corner of land of F. J. Laughlin; thence westerly by said Laughlin's land and land formerly of one Anthoine eighty-three (83) rods more or less to a pile of stones and brass pipe set in the ground; thence south sixty-seven and one-half degrees ($67\frac{1}{2}$) west four (4) rods and thirteen (13) links more or less to a maple tree on the west side of a ledge and an iron pipe driven into the ground; thence north nineteen degrees (19°) west thirty-four (34) rods more or less to a spotted red oak tree on the
