Chapter 88.

An Act Establishing Moosehead Lake Game Preserve, in the County of Piscataquis.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. Moosehead lake game preserve established. No person shall at any time hunt, chase, catch, kill or destroy any wild bird or wild animal within the limits of the following described tracts, or territory situated in Piscataquis county, to wit: Moose island and Farm island, in Moosehead lake, and the territory bounded as follows: Beginning on the shore of Moosehead lake at a point nearest to the easterly end of the state road leading westerly from Greenville Junction, so-called, to the State Fish Hatchery on Squaw brook, thence westerly by said state road to said hatchery, thence northeasterly down said brook to the shore of Moosehead lake, thence by the shore of said lake to the point of beginning. It shall be unlawful for any person to have in possession at any time any wild bird or wild animal, or part thereof, taken within the above described territory.

Sec. 2. Penalty for violations of act. Whoever violates any provision of this act shall be subject to a penalty of not less than ten dollars nor more than three hundred dollars and costs for each offense, or imprisonment for sixty days, or both said fine and imprisonment.

Approved March 15, 1929.

Chapter 89.

An Act for the Better Care of Inmates of the Reformatory for Women.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

P. L., 1921, c. 31; relating to inmates of state prison or reformatories afflicted with tuberculosis, amended. Chapter thirty-one of the public laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-one is hereby amended by striking out the whole of said chapter and substituting therefor the following:

CHAP. 90

May be transferred to state sanatoriums; preference given. 'Inmates of state prison or reformatories afflicted with tuberculosis may be transferred to state sanatoriums. Whenever any inmate of the state prison or of the men's reformatory or of the women's reformatory shall become afflicted with tuberculosis so that the welfare of such inmate or the safety of the other inmates of such institution shall require removal therefrom, the board of prison commissioners or the reformatory trustees, with the approval of the governor, may cause him or her to be removed to one of the state sanatoriums, to be there kept and treated until he or she may safely be returned to said prison or reformatory. In the admission of new patients the officers of such sanatoriums shall give preference to persons transferred under this act.'

Approved March 15, 1929.

Chapter 90.

An Act Relative to Penalties by Imprisonment.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. Statutes providing for imprisonment "for not more than one year," amended. In all cases where the statute provides for a penalty by imprisonment in the words "for not more than one year," or for a penalty, a part of which is by such imprisonment, or an alternative penalty including such imprisonment, including cases where such penalty is stated in words of similar purport, said statute is hereby amended by striking out the words "one year" and inserting in place thereof the words 'eleven months,' so that said clause specifying the term of such imprisonment shall read as follows:

'for not more than eleven months.'

And wherever such term of imprisonment is expressed in any other form of language, the same shall be so modified and changed as to provide and substitute for such term of not more than one year a term of imprisonment as follows:

'for not more than eleven months.'

Sec. 2. Inconsistent acts repealed. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.

Approved March 15, 1929.
