CHAP. 97

executor or administrator shall be a bar to any further or other action therefor.

Approved March 23, 1929.

Chapter 96.

An Act to Increase the Salary of the Register of Probate of Androscoggin County.
Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 117, sec. 39; as amended; relating to compensation of registers of probate, further amended. Section thirty-nine of chapter one hundred and seventeen of the revised statutes, as amended, is hereby further amended by striking out in line five of said section after the word "Androscoggin," the words "sixteen hundred" and inserting in place thereof the words 'eighteen hundred' so that said line as amended, shall read as follows:

Androscoggin county increased. 'Androscoggin, eighteen hundred dollars.'

Approved March 23, 1929.

Chapter 97.

An Act Relating to the Increase of the Salary of the Assistant County Attorney for the County of Androscoggin.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. P. L., 1925, c. 206; relating to assistant county attorney of Androscoggin county, amended. Chapter two hundred and six of the public laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-five, is hereby amended, by striking out in the tenth line of said chapter, the words "eight hundred dollars" and inserting in place thereof the words 'one thousand dollars,' so that said chapter as amended shall read as follows:

Salary increased to $1000. 'The county attorney of the county of Androscoggin may appoint an assistant, to be approved by the justice of the superior court for said county. Said assistant shall take the oath prescribed for county attorneys, and assist the county attorney in the ordinary duties of his office in the drawing of indictments, in the hearing of complaints before the grand jury, and in the preparation and trial of criminal causes. He shall, when directed by the county attorney, act as counsel for the state in the trial of complaints before judges of municipal and police courts and trial justices. Said assistant county attorney shall receive an annual salary of one thousand dollars payable from the state treasury in monthly payments on the last day of each month. The assistant county attorney shall hold his office during the term of the county attorney by whom he was appointed, subject to removal at any time by the justice of the superior court for said county.'

Sec. 2. Provisions date from Jan. 1, 1929. The provisions of this act shall date back to January first, nineteen hundred and twenty-nine, so that the increase of salary herein provided shall take effect as of that date.

Approved March 23, 1929.

Chapter 98.

An Act Relating to Closing of Ways in Winter.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 24, sec. 30; P. L., 1923, c. 158; P. L., 1927, c. 113; relating to closing certain roads in winter, further amended. The first paragraph of section thirty of chapter twenty-four of the revised statutes as amended by chapter one hundred and fifty-eight of the public laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-three as amended by chapter one hundred and thirteen of the public laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-seven is hereby further amended by striking out in the ninth line thereof after the words "months of" the words "January, February and March" and inserting in place thereof the words 'December, January, February, March and April,' so that said paragraph as amended shall read as follows:

Municipal officers or any seven legal voters may petition that roads may be closed during December, January, February, March and April. 'The municipal officers of any city, town, or plantation or any seven legal voters in any such city, town, or plantation may, at any time between the first day of July and the first day of December of any year, petition the county commissioners of the county in which such city, town, or plantation is located, setting forth that any road or roads in such city, town, or plantation are so located with reference to population, use and travel thereon, that it is unnecessary to keep said road or roads broken out and open for travel during the winter months of December, January, February, March and April, or any part of such months, and praying said commissioners, after notice and hearing on such petition, to decide whether such road or roads shall be kept open or closed during such period or part thereof, and for how many years not to exceed ten, such closing order, if made as prayed for, shall be operative.'

Approved March 23, 1929.
