Chapter 98.

An Act Relating to Closing of Ways in Winter.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 24, sec. 30; P. L., 1923, c. 158; P. L., 1927, c. 113; relating to closing certain roads in winter, further amended. The first paragraph of section thirty of chapter twenty-four of the revised statutes as amended by chapter one hundred and fifty-eight of the public laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-three as amended by chapter one hundred and thirteen of the public laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-seven is hereby further amended by striking out in the ninth line thereof after the words "months of" the words "January, February and March" and inserting in place thereof the words 'December, January, February, March and April,' so that said paragraph as amended shall read as follows:

Municipal officers or any seven legal voters may petition that roads may be closed during December, January, February, March and April. 'The municipal officers of any city, town, or plantation or any seven legal voters in any such city, town, or plantation may, at any time between the first day of July and the first day of December of any year, petition the county commissioners of the county in which such city, town, or plantation is located, setting forth that any road or roads in such city, town, or plantation are so located with reference to population, use and travel thereon, that it is unnecessary to keep said road or roads broken out and open for travel during the winter months of December, January, February, March and April, or any part of such months, and praying said commissioners, after notice and hearing on such petition, to decide whether such road or roads shall be kept open or closed during such period or part thereof, and for how many years not to exceed ten, such closing order, if made as prayed for, shall be operative.'

Approved March 23, 1929.
