Chapter 112.

An Act Relating to Collateral Loans by Mutual Savings Banks.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

P. L., 1923, c. 144, sec. 27; relating to investment of deposits by mutual savings banks, amended. Section twenty-seven, sub-division twelve, of chapter one hundred and forty-four, of the public laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-three, is hereby amended by striking out all of paragraphs "c" and "d" and inserting therein the following paragraph to be lettered "c."

'c. In notes with a pledge as collateral of such funds, bonds, notes, or stocks, as in the judgment of the trustees, it is safe and for the interests of the bank to accept to an amount not exceeding eighty per cent of the market value of such funds, bonds, notes or stocks.'

Approved March 23, 1929.

Chapter 113.

An Act Relating to the Service of Process on Non-Residents Involved in Automobile Accidents.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. Secretary of state lawful attorney of non-residents for service of processes; notice shall be sent by registered mail to defendant. The acceptance by a person who is a resident of any other state or country of the rights and privileges conferred by chapters one hundred and sixty-one and two hundred of the public laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-seven, together with any additions thereto and amendments thereof as evidenced by the operation, by himself or agent, of a motor vehicle thereunder, or the operation by such a person, by himself or his agent, of a motor vehicle on a public way in this state otherwise than under said chapters, shall be deemed equivalent to an appointment by him of the secretary of state, or his successor in office, to be his true and lawful attorney upon whom may be served all lawful processes in any action or proceeding against him, growing out of any accident or collision in which such person or his agent may be involved, while operating a motor vehicle on such a way, and said acceptance or operation shall be a signification of his agreement that any such process against him which is so served shall be of the same legal force and validity as if served on him personally. Service of such process shall be made by leaving a copy thereof, with a fee of two dollars in the hands of the secretary of state, or in his office, and such service shall be sufficient service upon such non-resident; provided, that notice of such service and a copy of the process are forthwith sent by registered mail by the plaintiff to the defendant, and the
