OF THE
STATE OF MAINE

As Passed by the Eighty-fourth Legislature

1929

CHAP. 123

attorneys, further amended. Section thirty-seven of chapter one hundred and seventeen of the revised statutes, as amended, is hereby further amended by striking out in line four after the word "Androscoggin" the words "fifteen hundred" and inserting in place thereof the words 'eighteen hundred,' so that said line as amended, shall read as follows:

Androscoggin county increased. 'Androscoggin, eighteen hundred dollars.'

Sec. 2. Provisions relate back. The provisions of this act shall relate back to January first, nineteen hundred and twenty-nine, so that the increase herein provided shall take effect as of that date.

Approved March 23, 1929.

Chapter 122.

An Act Relating to the Care of Abandoned or Neglected Animals.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 126, sec. 62; relating to care of abandoned animals at the owner's expense, amended. Section sixty-two of chapter one hundred and twenty-six of the revised statutes is hereby amended by inserting in the fifth line thereof after the word "same," and before the word "and" the words, 'and may enforce said lien in the manner provided for in section fifty-eight of this chapter,' so that said section as amended shall read as follows:

'Sec. 62. May enforce lien in manner provided. Any person may take charge of an animal whose owner has cruelly abandoned it, or cruelly fails to take care of and provide for it, and may furnish the same with proper shelter, nourishment and care, at the owner's expense, and have a lien thereon for the same, and may enforce said lien in the manner provided for in section fifty-eight of this chapter, and the keeping or leaving sheep on any of the uninhabited and barren islands, lying off the coast of Maine, within said state, during the months of December, January, February and March of any year, without providing sufficient food and proper shelter therefor, shall be deemed prima facie evidence that the owner or person having the custody and control of such sheep has violated the provisions of this section.'

Approved March 23, 1929.

Chapter 123.

An Act Relating to Personal Loans by Mutual Savings Banks.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

P. L., 1923, c. 144, sec. 27; relating to investment of deposits by savings banks, amended. Section twenty-seven of chapter one hundred and forty-four of the public laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-three is hereby amended by adding thereto the following sub-division, to be number XVIII, and titled "Personal Loans."

'XVIII. Personal Loans. In a note or notes of a responsible individual borrower with two substantial sureties or endorsers, approved by the board of trustees, in an amount not exceeding one thousand dollars directly or indirectly for any one individual, and the aggregate of such loans shall not exceed five per cent of its deposits.'

Approved March 23, 1929.

Chapter 124.

An Act Relating to the Extradition of Persons Charged with Crime, and to Make Uniform the Law with Reference Thereto.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. Terms defined. Where appearing in this act, the term "governor" includes any person performing the functions of governor by authority of the law of this state. The term "executive authority" includes the governor, and any person performing the functions of governor in a state other than this state. And the term "state" referring to a state other than this state refers to any other state or territory organized or unorganized of the United States of America.

Sec. 2. Arrest and delivery of those charged with crime. Subject to the qualifications of this act, and the provisions of the constitution of the United States controlling, and acts of Congress in pursuance thereof, it is the duty of the governor of this state to have arrested and delivered up to the executive authority of any other state of the United States any person charged in that state with treason, felony, or other crime, who has fled from justice and is found in this state.

Sec. 3. Demand for extradition. No demand for the extradition of a person charged with crime in another state shall be recognized by the governor unless in writing and accompanied by a copy of an indictment found or by an information supported by affidavit in the state having jurisdiction of the crime, or by a copy of an affidavit made before a magistrate there, together with a copy of any warrant which was issued thereon. The indictment, information, or affidavit made before the magistrate must substantially charge the person demanded with having committed a crime under the law of that state; and the copy must be authenticated by the executive authority making the demand, which shall be prima facie evidence of its truth.
