CHAP. 132

visions of this section shall be executed by the principal and one or more surety companies authorized to transact business in this state, and bonds with personal sureties shall no longer be regarded as complying with the provisions hereof. The trustees may, in lieu of such bonds, insure at the expense of the bank with some surety company which shall be satisfactory to the bank commissioner for the faithful performance of the duties of such officials, trustees and employees as are required by this section to be bonded, in such sums as they shall decide to be necessary for the safety of the assets in the custody of the corporation, but in no event less than twenty-five thousand dollars; subject, however, to the same right of the bank commissioner, as above provided, to require a new bond if at any time he shall deem the one provided by the corporation to be insufficient and unsatisfactory. The treasurer, assistant treasurer and clerks shall receive a compensation fixed by the trustees. The trustees may receive such compensation for their services in making examinations and returns required by their by-laws and the state laws, for making examinations of property and for attendance at any regular or special meetings of the board of trustees or any committee thereof as may be fixed by the corporation at any legal meeting thereof, or as may be fixed by the board of trustees and approved by the bank commissioner in writing.'

Approved March 23, 1929.

Chapter 132.

An Act Relative to Canning of Short Lobsters.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 45, sec. 38; relating to length of lobsters that may be canned, amended. Section thirty-eight of chapter forty-five of the revised statutes is hereby amended by striking out the words "four and three quarters" in the first and second lines of said section and by inserting in place thereof the words 'three and one half' and by inserting after the words "thirty-five" in the third line of said section the words 'as amended' so that said section as amended shall read as follows:

'Sec. 38. Lobsters under three and one-half inches in length unlawful; penalty for violation. No person shall can lobsters less than three and one half inches in length, alive or dead, measured in accordance with section thirty-five as amended; and for every lobster canned contrary to the provisions of this section, every person, firm, association or corporation so canning shall be liable to a penalty of five dollars for every lobster so canned, and a further penalty of three hundred dollars for every day on which such unlawful canning is carried on.'

Approved March 23, 1929.
