CHAP. 159

Sec. 3. R. S., c. 110, sec. 14; relating to extinguishment of right of way by adverse obstruction, amended. Section fourteen of chapter one hundred and ten of the revised statutes is hereby amended by striking out the words, "as hereinafter stated" in the eighth line and inserting in place thereof the words, 'as provided in section twelve,' so that said section, as amended shall read as follows:

'Sec. 14. Notice in writing by owner as provided, shall be deemed interruption of obstruction. No right of way or other easement existing in, upon, over or through the land of another, shall be extinguished by the adverse obstruction thereof, unless such adverse obstruction has been continued uninterruptedly for twenty years; and a notice in writing given by the owner of such right of way or other easement to the person whose land is subject thereto, setting forth said owner's intention to contest the extinguishment of such right of way or other easement, and duly served and recorded as provided in section twelve, shall be deemed an interruption of such obstruction and prevent the extinguishment of such right of way or other easement.'

Sec. 4. R. S., c. 110, sec. 15; relating to notice, how given, repealed. Section fifteen of chapter one hundred and ten of the revised statutes is hereby repealed.

Approved March 28, 1929.

Chapter 159.

An Act Relating to the Annual Payments to the Aroostook Law Library.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 13, sec. 8; P. L., 1921, c. 30; relating to payments to county law libraries, amended. Section eight of chapter thirteen of the revised statutes, as amended by chapter thirty of the public laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-one, is hereby further amended by striking out the words "county of Lincoln" in the second line and inserting in place thereof the words 'counties of Aroostook and Lincoln' and by striking out the word "five," in the eighth line and inserting in place thereof the word 'eight,' so that said section as amended shall read as follows:

'Sec. 8. Aroostook county treasurer shall pay additional eight hundred dollars. The treasurer of each county, except the counties of Aroostook and Lincoln, shall annually pay to the treasurer of the law library association of his county, for the uses and benefits of the county law library, the sum of five hundred dollars. The treasurer of the county of Lincoln shall annually pay to the treasurer of the law library association of said county the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars. The treasurer of Aroostook county shall pay annually to the law library association of said county the sum of eight hundred dollars, in addition to the five hundred dollars above mentioned, and at least five hundred dollars shall be expended annually by the library association of said county for books for the library at the court house at Caribou in said county. The treasurer of each county shall also pay to the treasurer of the law library association of each county all money received from persons admitted as attorneys in the supreme judicial court upon motion, without a certificate from the board of examiners of applicants for admission to the bar.'

Approved March 28, 1929.

Chapter 160

An Act Relating to the Transportation or Board of Children in Places of Temporary Residences.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

P. L., 1925, c. 100, sec. 2; relating to transportation or board of children in places of temporary residences. Section two of chapter one hundred of the public laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-five is hereby amended by striking out in line twelve after the words "from the" the word "equalization" and substituting therefor the words 'state school,' and by striking out in line thirteen after the word "distribution" the words "state school" and substituting therefor the word 'such'; so that the section as amended shall read as follows:

'Sec. 2. Reimbursement from state school fund at time of distribution. Where the distance from the place of temporary residence to the school is more than two miles and transportation is deemed advisable by the superintending school committee, the superintendent of schools shall report the same to the state commissioner of education with such other information as may be required and if so directed by the state commissioner of education shall procure transportation for such child or children or, if transportation is inadvisable, board in lieu thereof; provided that when there shall be reported to the commissioner of education in connection with the annual report a bill of expenses incurred in connection with such transportation or board, the state commissioner of education is hereby authorized to reimburse such towns and plantations for such expenses, the same to be paid from the state school fund and at the time of the distribution of such fund.'

Approved March 28, 1929.
