Chapter 165.

An Act Relating to Bonds of Licensed Detectives.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 132, sec. 13; as amended; relating to private detectives, amended. Section thirteen of chapter one hundred and thirty-two of the revised statutes as amended, is hereby amended by repealing all of said section as amended and by inserting in its place the following:

'Sec. 13. Private detectives may be licensed to number of 35; bond; not state detective; penalty for so advertising. The governor, with the advice of the council, may license not exceeding thirty-five detectives for the detection, prevention and punishment of crime, to serve for the term of four years, unless such license is sooner revoked for cause. Each person so licensed before receiving his commission shall give bond in the sum of five hundred dollars, with two sureties, approved by the governor and council, conditioned for the proper discharge of the services which he may perform by virtue of such license; but nothing herein contained shall be construed to confer on any person so licensed, any of the power and authority of sheriffs or police officers, except in cases of felony and offenses under chapter one hundred and twenty-two and the first twelve sections of chapter one hundred and twenty-seven. No person so licensed shall advertise or represent himself as a state detective, under penalty of the forfeiture of his license and a fine not to exceed twenty dollars, to be recovered upon complaint.'

Approved March 28, 1929.

Chapter 166.

An Act to Remove the Limit on Expenditure of Third Class Highway Funds Upon a Section of Road Where Buildings Are Nearer Than Two Hundred Feet Apart.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

P. L., 1919, c. 263, sec. 4, special session; P. L., 1923, c. 216, sec. 4; relating to work on roads to be completed before October 30, annually, further amended. Section four of chapter two hundred and sixty-three of the public laws of nineteen hundred and nineteen, special session, as amended by section four of chapter two hundred and sixteen of the public laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-three, is hereby further amended by striking out all of said section after the words "October annually" in the thirteenth and fourteenth lines of said section, so that said section as amended shall read as follows:

'Sec. 4. Municipal officers may recommend description or location of road for improvement; limit removed. Municipal officers of any town
