Chapter 169.

An Act Relating to the Protection of Fur-Bearing Animals.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. P. L., 1917, c. 219, sec. 46; as amended; relating to fur-bearing animals, further amended. The last paragraph of section forty-six of chapter two hundred and nineteen of the public laws of nineteen hundred and seventeen, as amended, is hereby further amended by striking out the whole of said paragraph and inserting in place thereof the following:

Catching and killing of skunks and raccoons regulated. 'Provided, however, that it shall be lawful to hunt, catch, pursue or kill skunks at night from the fifteenth day of October to the last day of the following February, both days inclusive, and that it shall be lawful to hunt, catch, pursue or kill raccoons at night from the first day of October to the last day of the following February, both days inclusive.'

Sec. 2. Inconsistent acts repealed. All acts and parts of acts, inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.

Approved March 28, 1929.

Chapter 170.

An Act to Increase the Time in Which to Appeal From Municipal and Police Courts, Trial Justices.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 88, sec. 18; relating to appeals, amended. Section eighteen of chapter eighty-eight of the revised statutes is hereby amended by striking out the words "twenty-four hours" in the third line and inserting the words 'five days' so that said section as amended shall read as follows:

'Sec. 18. Party aggrieved may enter appeal within five days. Any party aggrieved by the judgment of the justice, may appeal to the next supreme judicial or superior court in the same county, and may enter such appeal at any time within five days after the judgment, Sunday not included; and in that case no execution shall issue, and the case shall be entered and determined in the appellate court.'

Approved March 28, 1929.

Chapter 171.

An Act Providing for the Fencing and Care of Burying Grounds in Unincorporated Places.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Ancient or public burying grounds to be fenced. The county commis-
