Chapter 172.

An Act Relating to Designation of Through Ways.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

P. L., 1927, c. 138, sec. 1; relating to through ways, amended. Section one of chapter one hundred and thirty-eight of the public laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-seven is hereby amended by inserting the words 'and county and town ways connecting such state and state aid highways' after the word "highways" in the third line of said section, and by adding after the word "designation" in the third and fourth lines of said section the words 'provided, however, that within the compact or built-up portion of any city, town or village as defined in section sixty-two of chapter two hundred and eleven of the public laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-one such designation of through ways shall be made by the state highway commission only with the approval of the municipal officers thereof, and further provided that the state highway commission after notice shall revoke such designation upon the petition of the said municipal officers,' so that said section as amended shall read as follows:

'Sec. 1. Through ways designated in compact portions to be approved by municipal officers. For the purpose of this act, the state highway commission of Maine may from time to time designate certain state and state aid highways and county and town ways connecting such state and state aid highways as through ways, and may after notice revoke any such designation; provided, however, that within the compact or built-up portion of any city, town or village as defined in section sixty-two of chapter two hundred and eleven of the public laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-one such designation of through ways shall be made by the state highway commission only with the approval of the municipal officers thereof, and further provided that the state highway commission after notice shall revoke such designation upon the petition of the said municipal officers. Every vehicle approaching on a through way to point of its intersection with a way other than a through way so as to arrive at such point at approximately the same instant as a vehicle approaching on such other way, shall as against such other vehicle have the right of way, and every vehicle immediately before entering or crossing a through way at its point of intersection with another way shall first come to a full stop, provided that whenever a traffic officer is stationed at such point, he shall have the right to regulate traffic thereat. No such designation of a through way shall become effective as to regulation of traffic at such a point of intersection until said commission shall have caused suitable warning signs or signals to be erected at or near such point. For the purposes of this act, a way joining a through way at an angle, whether or not it crosses the same, shall be deemed to intersect it, and the word "way" unless the context otherwise requires, shall include a through or other way.'

Approved March 28, 1929.
