Chapter 191.

An Act Relating to Paupers, Their Settlement and Support.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. R. S., c. 29, sec. 1; relating to pauper settlements, amended. Paragraph two of section one of chapter twenty-nine of the revised statutes is hereby amended by adding thereto the words 'Minor children of divorced parents, if given into the custody of either parent by the decree of divorce, shall follow the settlement of the parent to whom custody is given; if custody is not given, such children shall follow the settlement of their father, unless emancipated,' so that said paragraph, as amended, shall read as follows:

'II. How minor children of divorced parents follow settlement. Legitimate children have the settlement of their father, if he has any in the state; if he has not, they have the settlement of their mother within it; but they do not have the settlement of either, acquired after they are of age and have capacity to acquire one. Minor children of divorced parents, if given into the custody of either parent by the decree of divorce, shall follow the settlement of the parent to whom custody is given; if custody is not given, such children shall follow the settlement of their father, unless emancipated.'

Sec. 2. R. S., c. 29, sec. 29; relating to limit on bills for relief of state paupers, repealed. Section twenty-nine of said chapter is hereby repealed.

Approved April 4, 1929.

Chapter 192.

An Act Relating to the Capacity of Milk Bottles and Jars.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 37, sec. 20; P. L., 1927, c. 259; relating to capacity of milk bottles and jars, further amended. Section twenty of chapter thirty-seven of the revised statutes as amended by chapter two hundred and fifty-nine of the public laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-seven is further amended by inserting after the words "one pint or" in the second line of said section as amended, the words 'five-eighths of one pint or' and by inserting after the words "and one dram of deficiency" in the eighth line of said section as amended, the words 'in the five-eighths of a pint and' so that said section as amended shall read as follows:

'Sec. 20. Five-eighths pint capacity added. Glass bottles and jars used for the sale of milk or cream shall be of the capacity of one quart or one pint or five-eighths of one pint or one-half pint and shall be sealed as full measure under the provisions of section thirteen of chapter forty-eight of the revised statutes, or by the manufacturer, as provided in section twenty-one of this chapter. The following tolerances will be allowed: four drams of excess and two drams of deficiency in the quart bottle, three drams of excess and one and one-half drams of deficiency in the pint, and two drams of excess and one dram of deficiency in the five-eighths of a pint and in the one-half pint. The use, for the distribution of milk or cream to the consumer of glass bottles or jars of any other capacity than as herein provided is hereby prohibited and declared to be illegal. All dealers in milk or cream who use, for the distribution of milk or cream to consumers, glass bottles or jars which have not been sealed by the manufacturer, shall bring such bottles or jars to the office of their city or town sealer to be sealed as aforesaid. If a bottle or jar has once been sealed by a sealer of weights and measures, or by the manufacturer, it shall not in any case be necessary to have it sealed again at any time while it is used for the distribution of milk or cream to consumers. Glass bottles or jars sealed under the provisions of this section shall not be legal measures except for the distribution of milk or cream.'

Approved April 4, 1929.

Chapter 193.

An Act Relative to Snow Removal From State and State Aid Highways in Unincorporated Townships and Plantations, and Declaring Chapter Two Hundred and Twenty-seven of the Public Laws of Nineteen Hundred and Twenty-seven to be a Part of Chapter Twenty-five of the Revised Statutes Entitled "State Highways."

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. P. L., 1927, c. 227, sec. 4; relating to reimbursement of towns for snow removal, amended. Section four of chapter two hundred and twenty-seven of the public laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-seven is hereby amended by adding thereto the following words: 'Organized plantations and unincorporated townships, which clear winter routes upon state or state aid highways designated in accordance with section one hereof, to the satisfaction of said commission, shall bear fifty per cent of the cost thereof, including the cost of supervision, not exceeding, however, twenty-five dollars per mile of such winter routes; and such organized plantations and unincorporated townships shall be reimbursed accordingly,' so that said section four as amended shall read as follows:

'Sec. 4. Organized plantations and unincorporated townships to be reimbursed; limitations. Towns which clear said highways and town ways to the satisfaction of said commission shall be reimbursed for the cost thereof, including the cost of supervision, to the extent of fifty per cent of said cost, including the cost of supervision, but not exceeding twenty-
