Chapter 200.

An Act Relative to Sea and Shore Fisheries Commission.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

P. L., 1917, c. 293, secs. 3, 4 and 6; P. L., 1921, c. 82; relating to creation of the sea and shore fisheries commission, amended. Sections three, four and six of chapter two hundred and ninety-three of the public laws of nineteen hundred and seventeen, as amended by chapter eighty-two of the public laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-one, are hereby amended by striking out the whole of said sections and by substituting in place thereof the following section, to be numbered section two:

'Sec. 2. Commission to consist of three members not all of same political party; duties; authority; rules and regulations; penalties for violation. The sea and shore fisheries commission shall consist of three persons who shall not all be members of the same political party and who, except as hereinafter provided, shall be chosen from the two political parties casting the largest number of votes for governor at the last preceding election. They shall be appointed by the governor, with the advice and consent of the council, in successive years upon expiration of the terms of the present commissioners, and each commissioner shall hold office for a term of three years unless sooner removed. Commissioners may at any time be removed from office for cause by the governor with the advice and consent of the council after notice and hearing. In case of a vacancy the governor, with the advice and consent of the council, shall appoint a person of the same
