Chapter 208.

An Act Relating to License of Small Loan Agencies by the Bank Commissioner. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

P. L., 1917, c. 298, sec. 2; relating to license for small loan agencies, amended. Section two of chapter two hundred and ninety-eight of the public laws of nineteen hundred and seventeen is hereby amended by striking out the word "shall" in the third line, and inserting in place thereof the word 'may' so that said section as amended shall read as follows:

'Sec. 2. Bank commissioner may issue license. Upon the filing of such application and the approval of said bond and the payment of said fee, the bank commissioner may issue a license to the applicant to make loans in accordance with the provisions of this act for a period which shall expire the first day of January next following the date of its issuance; provided, that if the license is issued for a period of less than six months the license fee shall be twenty-five dollars. Such license shall not be assignable, and shall be kept conspicuously posted in the place of business of the licensee.'

Approved April 4, 1929.
