CHAP. 216

commissioner to cause to be carried on, by such means as he may deem best, the spread of information concerning the nature and results of mosquito extermination among the people of the state.

Sec. 2. Control measures for abatement. The commissioner of health shall be authorized to enter upon areas suspected of being breeding places of salt-marsh or fresh-water mosquitoes wheresoever located and to carry out necessary control measures for the abatement of mosquito nuisances and the eradication of such mosquitoes. Said commissioner may delegate authority to carry out such control measures to local health officers or other officials of cities, towns or plantations in which control work is deemed necessary.

Sec. 3. Funds to be appropriated by legislature. For the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of this act, said commissioner of the state department of health shall have power to expend such amount of money annually as may be appropriated by the legislature.

Approved April 4, 1929.

Chapter 215.

An Act Relating to Mutual Insurance Risks.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 53, sec. 33; relating to regulating of insurance by mutual companies, amended. Section thirty-three of chapter fifty-three of the revised statutes is hereby amended by striking out after the word "property" in the third line thereof the following, "the contents of any building within the state," so that as amended said section shall read as follows:

'Sec. 33. Risks specified. Domestic mutual fire insurance companies may make insurance for a term, not exceeding seven years, on dwelling houses, stores, shops and other buildings, and on household furniture, merchandise and other property, against loss or damage by fire originating in any cause other than by design on the part of the assured.'

Approved April 4, 1929.
