PUBLIC LAWS
OF THE
STATE OF MAINE

As Passed by the Eighty-fourth Legislature

1929

said jail to keep a calendar, with such statistics in relation to his jail as said board of commissioners may deem useful for future reference.

Said board of commissioners may remove prisoners from jails where no arrangements have been made for the labor of convicts, to some work-jail, and when any jail has a larger number of convicts, either in custody or at labor than can be well accommodated, they may remove a portion of them to any other jail where better accommodations can be afforded. Any jail where arrangements have been made or shall be hereafter made for the labor of convicts committed for any special crime, or class of crimes, at any special kind of labor, shall be deemed a work-jail. For the removal of convicts as aforesaid, the board of commissioners may issue precepts to any officer qualified to serve precepts in criminal cases in his county, to cause such removal, whether such service is performed in whole or in part in one or more counties, and the expense of removal shall be paid by the county in which such convicts were sentenced. The board of commissioners shall make a report of the condition of all the prisons to the governor and council by the thirtieth day of November annually.'

Approved April 5, 1929.

Chapter 224.

An Act to Increase the Salary of the County Commissioners of the County of Washington.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 117, sec. 42; as amended; relating to compensation of county commissioners, further amended. Section forty-two of chapter one hundred and seventeen of the revised statutes, as amended, is hereby further amended by striking out the words "six hundred and fifty" after the word "Washington" in the nineteenth line of said section and inserting in place thereof the following: 'eight hundred dollars' so that said nineteenth line, as amended, shall read as follows:

Washington county increased. 'Washington, eight hundred dollars.'

Approved April 5, 1929.

Chapter 225.

An Act to Provide for the Forfeiture of Lobster Traps and Other Gear and Vehicles and Other Contrivances Used in the Several Branches of the Lobster Industry.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. Forfeiture of lobster trap and other gear. Any trap, car, gear, or any other device used in connection with the catching of lobsters, and any car, smack, vehicle or other device used in the holding, carrying or
