PUBLIC LAWS
OF THE
STATE OF MAINE

As Passed by the Eighty-fourth Legislature

1929

having taken from the waters of the aforesaid Georges river any lobsters, legal or illegal, or any crabs in violation of the provisions of sections one and two of this act shall be punished by a fine of five dollars for each lobster and one dollar for each crab illegally taken.

Sec. 5. Not to conflict with right of commissioners. Nothing in this act shall be construed as taking away or as abridging in any way the right of the commissioners of sea and shore fisheries to declare a close time in the aforesaid waters.

Approved April 9, 1929.

Chapter 279.

An Act Relative to Lien on Vehicles.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 96, sec. 56; P. L., 1925, c. 171; relating to lien on vehicles, further amended. Section fifty-six of chapter ninety-six of the revised statutes, as amended by chapter one hundred and seventy-one of the public laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-five, is hereby further amended by striking out all of said section and substituting in place thereof the following:

'Sec. 56. Lien for labor performed. Whoever performs labor by himself or his employees in manufacturing, or repairing the ironwork or woodwork of wagons, carts, sleighs and other vehicles or so performing labor furnishes materials therefor or provides storage therefor, by direction or consent of the owner thereof, shall have a lien on such vehicle for his reasonable charges for said labor and for materials used in performing said labor, and for said storage, which takes precedence of all other claims and incumbrances on said vehicles, not made to secure a similar lien, and may be enforced by attachment at any time within ninety days after such labor is performed or such materials or storage furnished and not afterwards, provided, that a claim for such lien is duly filed as required in the following section; said lien, however, shall be dissolved if said property has actually changed ownership prior to such filing.'

Approved April 9, 1929.

Chapter 280.
