PUBLIC LAWS
OF THE
STATE OF MAINE

As Passed by the Eighty-fourth Legislature

1929

CHAP. 283

distinctive part of such uniform, or a uniform any part of which is similar to a distinctive part of the duly prescribed uniform of the United States army, navy, marine corps or national guard; provided, that the foregoing provisions shall not be construed so as to prevent such persons as may be authorized by the laws and regulations of the United States from wearing such uniform as they may be authorized to wear under the above mentioned laws and regulations. Provided further, that the term "distinctive part of the uniform" in this act, shall be construed to mean such parts of the uniform as may be at this time or shall be hereafter designated as "distinctive" by the army regulations of the United States. Any person who offends against the provisions of this act, shall, on conviction, be punished by a fine not exceeding three hundred dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.'

Sec. 16. P. L., 1923, c. 174, sec. 90; relating to articles of war and courts-martial, amended. Section ninety of chapter one hundred and seventy-four of the public laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-three, is hereby amended by striking out all of said section and inserting in place thereof the following:

'Sec. 90. Governed by articles of war and courts-martial. Except as provided in the preceding sections the national guard of the state of Maine shall at all times and in all places, and the unorganized militia shall whenever called into service, be governed by the articles of war and manual of courts-martial as adapted to the use of the national guard by the war department, militia bureau, in the national guard regulations, as the same were in effect on March twenty-six, nineteen hundred and twenty-nine.'

Approved April 9, 1929.

Chapter 283.

An Act Relative to Directional Signs Located in the Highway.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

P. L., 1925, c. 188, sec. 1; P. L., 1927, c. 160; relating to advertising signs on highways, further amended. Section one of chapter one hundred and eighty-eight of the public laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-five, as amended by chapter one hundred and sixty of the public laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-seven, is hereby further amended by striking out the words "twenty inches in length and six inches in width" in the fifteenth line of said section and inserting in place thereof the words 'thirty inches in length and nine inches in width' so that said section, as amended, shall read as follows:

Sec. 1. Size of highway signs changed. No person shall post, erect, display or maintain or cause to be posted, erected, displayed or maintained any sign, bill-board, panel, placard, poster, notice or other advertising device, in, upon, or above any public highway or so situated with respect to any public highway as to obstruct clear vision of an intersecting highway or highways or otherwise so situated as to prevent the safe use of the public highway; and such public highway shall be deemed the full width of the road as laid out by the county or the town.

Provided, that the provisions hereof shall not apply to the state or to any political subdivision thereof or to signs erected or maintained with the approval of the state highway commission solely for the purpose of safeguarding, facilitating or protecting travel along the highway; and provided further that the state highway commission may order the placing of directional signs of such design as it shall determine, not exceeding thirty inches in length and nine inches in width to designate places of interest; to be posted without expense to the state at the junction of roads in the town where the place is located and in adjoining towns.'

Approved April 9, 1929.

Chapter 284.

An Act to Amend Chapter One Hundred and Sixty-two of the Public Laws of Nineteen Hundred and Twenty-seven as Applied to War Bond Sinking Fund.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. P. L., 1921, c. 221, sec. 1; P. L., 1927, c. 162; relating to war bond sinking funds, amended. Section one of chapter two hundred and twenty-one of the public laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-one, as amended by chapter one hundred and sixty-two of the public laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-seven, is hereby amended by inserting after paragraph "Third" of said section as amended, a new paragraph designated as 'Fourth' as follows:

'Fourth: To provide the annual sum necessary to pay bonds issued under the provisions of chapter one hundred and eighty-seven of the public laws of nineteen hundred and seventeen maturing during the fiscal years ending June thirtieth, nineteen hundred and thirty to June thirtieth, nineteen hundred and thirty-two inclusive.'

Sec. 2. P. L., 1921, c. 221, sec. 1, further amended. Said section one is hereby further amended by renumbering paragraphs "Fourth" and "Fifth" thereof to be paragraphs 'Fifth' and 'Sixth,' and by adding to said section a new paragraph designated 'Seventh' as follows:

'Seventh: Insofar as the amount raised of said tax of one mill on a dollar shall not be required at any time for the purposes intended in the
