PUBLIC LAWS
OF THE
STATE OF MAINE

As Passed by the Eighty-fourth Legislature

1929

CHAP. 298

public laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-three, by striking from the fourth and fifth lines of said paragraph the following, "or securities legal for purchase by savings banks under the statutes of any New England state" and by striking from the seventh and eighth lines of said paragraph the following, "or securities whose issue has been authorized by the Maine public utilities commission."

Sec. 3. P. L., 1923, c. 144, sec. 126; relating to definition of terms, further amended. Further amend section one hundred and twenty-six of chapter one hundred and forty-four of the public laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-three, by adding to said section the following:

Occasional sales of securities by regular employees. 'Persons regularly employed by public utilities whose securities are authorized by the Maine public utilities commission, and by corporations whose securities are legal for purchase by savings banks under the statutes of any New England state, shall not be deemed security dealers, agents or salesmen if the occasional sale by such employee of securities issued by the employer utility or corporation, or issued by a corporation operating in Maine and owning or controlling such employer utility or corporation, is only incident to, and not a part of the usual duties of such employment.'

Approved April 12, 1929.

Chapter 298.

An Act Relating to Amusements on Memorial Day.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

P. L., 1921, c. 216, sec. 1; relating to prohibiting public games and amusements on Memorial day, amended. Section one of chapter two hundred and sixteen of the public laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-one is hereby amended by adding in the first line after the word "Day" the words 'before three-thirty o'clock in the afternoon,' so that said section, as amended, shall read as follows:

'Sec. 1. Prohibited before 3.30 o'clock in the afternoon. Whoever on Memorial Day before three-thirty o'clock in the afternoon engages in any public outdoor game or sport where an admission is charged or collection is taken shall be punished by a fine not exceeding twenty-five dollars or imprisonment not exceeding ten days, or by both such fine and imprisonment. Judges of municipal and police courts and trial justices shall have jurisdiction of all offenses under this act.'

Approved April 12, 1929.
