Chapter 303.

An Act Relating to Prohibiting Business and Recreation on Sunday.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 126, sec. 35; relating to business, traveling and recreation, prohibited. Section thirty-five of chapter one hundred and twenty-six of the revised statutes is hereby amended by striking out all of said section and by substituting therefor the following section:

'Sec. 35. Certain business and recreation allowed on Lord's Day. Whoever, on the Lord's Day, keeps open his shop, workhouse, warehouse or place of business, travels, or does any work, labor or business on that day, except works of necessity or charity; uses any sport, game or recreation; or is present at any dancing, public diversion, show or entertainment, encouraging the same, shall be punished by fine not exceeding ten dollars; provided, however, that this section shall not apply to the operation of common carriers; to the driving of taxi cabs and public carriages in attendance upon the arrival or departure of such carriers; to the driving of private automobiles or other vehicles; to the printing and selling of Sunday newspapers; to the keeping open of hotels, restaurants, garages and drug stores; to the selling of gasoline; or to the giving of scientific, philosophical, religious or educational lectures where no admission is charged.'

Approved April 13, 1929.

Chapter 304.

An Act to Regulate the Quality of Sardines Packed in This State.

Emergency preamble. Whereas, there is no existing provision of law regulating the quality of sardines packed in this state and requiring and providing for an inspection of sardine packing plants which pack such sardines for food purposes and of the sardines packed in such plants, and

Whereas, the packing season for sardines begins annually on or about the fifteenth day of April which is prior to the period when an act of the legislature not bearing an emergency clause would take effect, and

Whereas, in the judgment of this legislature it is necessary that immediate provision should be made for regulating the quality of sardines packed in this state and providing for the inspection of packing plants which pack such sardines for food purposes and of the sardines packed in such plants, and

Whereas, in the judgment of this legislature, these facts constitute an emergency within the meaning of the constitution of the state of Maine and therefore require the following legislation as immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety,

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. Sardine packers shall procure license. No person, firm, corporation, association or society shall pack sardines in the state of Maine for sale without having first filed with the commissioner of agriculture an application for license accompanied with a fee of fifty dollars upon receipt
