Chapter 326.

An Act Relative to Clerk of County Commissioners.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 83, sec. 6; relating to clerk of courts to be clerk of the commissioners, amended. Section six of chapter eighty-three of the revised statutes is hereby amended by striking out the whole of said section and by substituting in place thereof the following:

'Sec. 6. Deputy clerk provided for. The clerk of the judicial courts in each county shall be the clerk of the county commissioners; and in counties having a deputy clerk or deputy clerks, such deputies shall each be a deputy clerk of the commissioners and in the absence of the clerk shall have the same powers and duties as those of such clerk. The clerk of the county commissioners shall be known as the county clerk, and each deputy clerk of the county commissioners shall be known as a deputy county clerk. When a clerk and his deputies are in attendance at any other court the clerk may appoint a clerk pro tempore to the commissioners for whose doings he is responsible. Such clerks shall be sworn and shall make a daily record of the doings of the county commissioners and said commissioners shall examine such records and when correct shall certify them and they shall be copied into the records of the county commissioners by the stated clerk.'

Approved April 13, 1929.

Chapter 327.

An Act Relating to the Use and Operation of Motor Vehicles on the Highways.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. (a) Accident reports provided for. The chief of the state highway police shall prepare and shall on request supply to police and sheriffs' offices and other suitable agencies forms of accident reports calling for sufficiently detailed information to disclose with reference to a highway accident the cause, conditions then existing and the persons and vehicles involved.

(b) Reports to be tabulated and analyzed. The chief of the state highway police shall receive accident reports required to be made by law and shall tabulate and analyze such reports and may publish annually or
