PUBLIC LAWS
OF THE
STATE OF MAINE

As Passed by the Eighty-fourth Legislature

1929

[supplied from page 1 of volume]

Chapter 333.

An Act Relating to Declarations Upon a Contract in Writing.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

When declarations in an action at law are sufficient. No declaration in an action at law upon any contract in writing shall be adjudged insufficient if it sets forth the making of said contract, the full contract relied upon with an allegation that the plaintiff has complied with all the terms and conditions thereof and the further allegation of the specific breach or breaches upon which the plaintiff relies, and that the plaintiff is thereby damaged.

Approved April 13, 1929.

Chapter 334.

An Act to Regulate Fishing in the Tributaries of Three Mile Pond in the County of Kennebec.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. Close time on fishing in tributaries of Three Mile pond; possession unlawful. It shall be unlawful for any person to fish for, take, catch or kill any kind of fish in Barton brook in the town of Windsor; or in Sabin brook in the town of China; or in Webber brook in the town of China; or in Whitehouse brook in the town of Vassalboro, and all brooks flowing into Three Mile pond in the county of Kennebec, until April fifteenth, nineteen hundred and thirty-four.

It shall also be unlawful for any person to have in possession any kind of fish at any time taken in violation of any provision of this section.

Sec. 2. Penalty for violations. Whoever violates any provision of this act shall be subject to a penalty of not less than ten dollars nor more than thirty dollars and costs for each offense and an additional penalty of one dollar for each fish taken, caught, killed or had in possession in violation of any provision of this act.

Sec. 3. Jurisdiction. Trial justices, police and municipal courts, within their respective counties shall have, upon complaint, original and concurrent jurisdiction with the supreme judicial court and superior courts in all prosecutions arising under this act.

Sec. 4. Inconsistent acts repealed. All acts or parts of acts, or rules and regulations of the department of inland fisheries and game, promulgated in accordance with law, inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

Approved April 13, 1929.
