Private and Special Laws

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE

As Passed by the Eighty-Fourth
Legislature

1929

---

---

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. Civil service rules provided for. The city council may provide by ordinance for a system of civil service rules for the appointment, promotion, demotion, lay-off, reinstatement, suspension, retirement with or without pension, and removal of the members of the police department, and of the fire department other than the chiefs of said departments, and for a civil service commission to administer the same.

Sec. 2. Inconsistent sections repealed. All sections of said charter as provided in said special act of eighteen hundred and ninety-five, or sections amendatory thereof, or additional thereto, inconsistent with this act, are hereby repealed.

Sec. 3. Effective when approved. In view of the emergency cited in the preamble, this act shall take effect when approved.

Approved March 1, 1929.

Chapter 23.

An Act to Extend the Charter Granted to the Union Terminal Company.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Charter extended. The act of incorporation of the Union Terminal Company being chapter sixty-nine of the private and special laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-seven and the charter granted thereby are hereby extended for two years from the date when the same would otherwise expire by law, with the same force and effect in all respects as if said incorporation were hereby granted.

Approved March 1, 1929.

Chapter 24.

An Act to Amend the Charter of Farmington Falls Electric Company.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Purposes of organization cancelled. Farmington Falls Electric Company, a corporation organized under the general laws of Maine, under the name, "The North Chesterville Light and Power Company," by certificate recorded in the office of the secretary of state, June twenty-one, nineteen hundred and thirteen, in volume eighty, page four hundred and thirty-three, and by certificate of change of name to "Farmington Falls Electric Company" filed in the office of the secretary of state, October fourteen, nineteen hundred and twenty, the purposes of which are defined in its
