fail to acquire by purchase or by the exercise of the right of eminent domain as in this act provided, the plant, properties, franchise, rights and privileges owned by the Eastport Water Company and the Perry Equipment Company and used or usable in supplying water in the city of Eastport, then this act shall become null and void.

Sec. 19. When effective as to referendum. This act shall take effect in ninety days after the final adjournment of the legislature, so far as necessary to empower the calling and holding of the elections authorized in section seventeen herein provided for.

Sec. 20. Reference defined. Wherever reference is made in this act to the Eastport Water Company or to the Perry Equipment Company it shall be construed to include their respective successors or assigns.

Sec. 21. R. S., c. 55, to govern. Nothing herein contained is intended to repeal, or shall be construed as repealing, the whole, or any part of any existing statute, and all the rights and duties herein mentioned shall be exercised and performed in accordance with all the applicable provisions of chapter fifty-five of the revised statutes, and all acts amendatory thereof or additional thereto.

Approved March 1, 1929.

Chapter 28.

An Act Authorizing the City of Portland to Provide by Ordinance for the Retirement, Pension and Annuity to Dependents, of Members of the Police and Fire Departments.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

P. & S. L., 1927, c. 75; relating to retirement pensions for police departments, amended. That chapter seventy-five of the private and special laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-seven be amended by adding as section four the following:

'Sec. 4. Ordinance for equalizing pensions. The city of Portland is further authorized to provide by ordinance for equalizing pensions of members of the police and fire departments and to carry into effect such equalization to pay to such members of the police and fire departments on their pension rolls as received less than two dollars and fifty cents per day an added amount, so that a pension of two dollars and fifty cents per day may be paid to men on the pension rolls. The provisions of this section shall not apply to call members of the fire department now on the pension rolls.'

Further amended. And that said chapter seventy-five be further amended by numbering "section four" as 'section five.'

Approved March 1, 1929.
