CHAP. 110

Sec. 6. Real estate to become property of town in which it is located. All real estate, if any, including school houses and lots on which same are located, belonging to the town of Hancock or Lamoine, and which by the passage of this act shall be changed from within the boundaries of one of said towns, into and within the boundaries of the other, shall be and become the property of the town within which said real estate shall be located, after this act shall take effect, without payment of any compensation by one town to the other.

Sec. 7. Subject to referendum. This act shall take effect when approved by a majority of the legal voters and tax payers, both resident and non-resident, within that portion of said town of Hancock commonly known as Marlboro and bounded as follows, to wit: on the east by Skilings river, on the south by the waters of Frenchman's bay, on the west by the east line of the town of Lamoine, who are present and vote at a special meeting of said legal voters and tax payers, both resident and non-resident within said described area, to be called by the selectmen of said Hancock on some convenient day in the month of August in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine at the usual voting place in said Hancock or at such other place therein but within the said described area. Said special meeting shall be called, warned and conducted according to the law relating to municipal elections and the selectmen of said Hancock shall prepare and post a list of voters and of the tax payers, both resident and non-resident within said area. For the purpose of registration said board of selectmen shall be in session at its office the secular day next preceding said special election. The clerk of the town of Hancock shall reduce the subject matter of this act to the following question: "Shall the act to re-establish the town line between the towns of Hancock and Lamoine be accepted?" and the voters shall indicate by a cross placed over the word "Yes" or "No" their opinion of the same. The result of the balloting shall be declared by the selectmen of Hancock and a certificate thereof shall be filed by the clerk of said town with the secretary of state.

Approved April 9, 1929.
