Private and Special Laws

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE

As Passed by the Eighty-Fourth
Legislature

authorized to create a sinking fund for the payment and redemption of the bonds issued under the provisions of chapter eighty-eight of the private and special laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-seven.

Sec. 2. Money to be raised by taxation; investment. Said county of Washington is hereby authorized to raise money by taxation for the sinking fund provided in section one hereof and to invest said fund or any other funds forming a part of said sinking fund in its own bonds or in the public funds of the United States or any of the New England or Middle Atlantic states and in the bonds of any county, state or town of the state of Maine.

Sec. 3. County commissioners to designate a trustee. The county commissioners of said county of Washington are hereby authorized to designate a trustee to hold the funds forming a part of such sinking fund, which trustee shall be a banking corporation organized under the laws of the state of Maine and having a capital of not less than two hundred and fifty thousand dollars and to pay to said trustee annually on the thirty-first day of December or as soon thereafter as may be, such surplus of appropriated funds as may lie in the treasury unexpended and in the discretion of the county commissioners for the time being may be available for the purpose.

Sec. 4. Money once paid in to be used solely for retirement of bonds. The money once paid into the sinking fund hereby provided shall not be available for the use of the county for any purpose except for the retirement of the bonds hereinbefore referred to in section one.

Approved April 9, 1929.
