Chapter 123.

An Act to Apply Surplus Funds Toward State Construction.

Emergency preamble. Whereas, proper accommodations for the wards and dependents of our state are vital to the public welfare, and

Whereas new construction for various state institutions, such as hospitals, sanatoriums, reformatories and schools has been and may hereafter be authorized by this legislature, and

Whereas it is immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety that appropriations specified in the various resolves be available for said new construction, which in the opinion of the legislature constitutes an emergency within the meaning of the constitution, now, therefore,

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. Surplus funds to be used for new construction. The amounts by which the actual income of the state for each of the years ending June thirtieth, nineteen hundred and twenty-nine, and June thirtieth, nineteen hundred and thirty, exceeds the current expenses of the said two years, together with balances of unexpended appropriations in non-continuing accounts which exist on July first, nineteen hundred twenty-nine and July first, nineteen hundred and thirty, except so much thereof as may be required to pay then outstanding bills for which said appropriations were made, and except such appropriations as relate to the issue and payment of bonds, loans or special funds, shall, as soon as ascertained, and after
